ASHTAKAVARGA.

The following eleven slokas from होरामकरन्द (Horamakaranda) are inserted here, because they form an appropriate introduction to this Chapter.

यद्गोचरे जन्मगृहाद् ग्रहाणां पृथक् फलं द्वादशराशिपूक्तम् ।
नृणां तदेकर्क्षभुवां फलस्य भेदादनैकान्तिकमुक्तमाद्यैः ॥ १ ॥

Each planet moving from the place it occupied at the birth of a person admittedly produces its own peculiar effect varying with its progress through the 12 Rasis. Owing to the admitted variation in this effect, the ancients say that it cannot be laid down as absolutely identical (even) in the case of persons born under the same star.

यत्र स्थितः शीतकरो नराणां स्याजन्मराशिं तमुदाहरन्ति ।
यथा तथा येषु खगाः सलग्नाः स्थिता न ते सप्तकतो भवन्ति ॥ २ ॥

Astrologers declare that to be the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of a person wherein the Moon was at the time of his birth. The several places in which the planets and the Lagna may be in all possible ways cannot consist of seven.

अतोऽष्टराशिर्मनुजोऽत्र सर्वः प्रोक्तोऽत्र तेभ्यश्च शुभाशुभानि ।
फलानि तेषां च वियोगयोगा यदाऽष्टवर्गोत्थफलं स्फुटं स्यात् ॥ ३ ॥

Hence every person is declared to have eight signs as the seats of the seven planets and the Lagna and it is with reference to these eight places that all the good and evil effects of a person's life due to the disjoined or conjoined states of the planets and the Lagna are calculated——a process which when completed, the अष्टकवर्ग (Ashtakavarga) result as it is called will become revealed.

The benefic positions have heen enumerated; the rest are to be understood as malefic. The two-fold distinctions viz. of benefic and malefic should be clearly set forth. The planets produce the effect of whichever of these two preponderate in the

*But according to Parasara, the 3rd, 4th, 6th, 9th, 11th and 12tb places from Mars.

Ashtakavarga calculations made from the Rasi they occupy at the time of birth (vide previous Slokas). In their own, friendly or उपचय (Upachaya) places, the planets invariably advance the benefic effect revealed by Ashtakavarga. In their depression, ini-inimical or अपचय (Apachaya) places, they generally fail to sustain whatever good effect may appear from the Ashtakavarga process.

जन्मकाले ग्रहा यत्र स्थितास्तत्स्थानतोऽङ्कयेत् ।
*रेखाबिन्दूंश्च तत्रर्क्षे चाराच्छेत्फलं ग्रहः ॥ (सत्याचार्यः)

From where the planets are at the time of birth, the benefic and malefic dots should be marked. A planet in its progress through a Rasi produces the effect of the malefic or benefic dots appearing therein (as ascertained from its Ashtakavarga).

* In other books रेखा (Rekha) is used to denote what बिन्दु (Bindu) signifies here viz. a benefic dot ; the term बिन्दु (Bindu) in other books is employed in the sense of a malefic dot. This has to be kept in mind in making out quotations from other authors.

कष्टश्रेष्ठफले ज्ञात्वा तदन्तरवशात्फलम् ।
चारक्रमेण खचरा यच्छन्तीति जगुर्बुधाः ॥ (देवकीर्तिः)

The several places detailed above are to be reckoned with respect to the Rasi (and not the Bhava) occupied by each of the 7 planets and the Lagna at the time of birth. These places should be understood as benefic and the rest malefic. As each Rasi happens to be counted 8 times (once for each of the 7 planets and the Lagna) for ascertaining the benefic as well as the malefic places, the maximum number of countings cannot in any case exceed 8. If after computation of a planet's अष्टकवर्ग (Ashtakavarga) it is found that a particular Rasi has more countings on the bene-fiic side than on the malefic, it means that the net result is bene-ficial to the native.

If we should denote a benefic place by a dot (·) and a malefic one by a vertical stroke (|), we can at a glance understand the difference between these two kinds of countings in any अष्टकवर्ग

(Ashtakavarga). The effect of a planet's arrival in any bhava (भाव) in its progress through the orbit गोचर (Gochara), is benefic, mixed or malefic according as the number of benefic dots in the Rasi representing the bhava in the भिन्नाष्टकवर्ग (Bhinnashtakavarga) of the planet is greater than, equal to or less than 4. Dots short of the prescribed minimum indicate untoward effect produced by a planet belying any favourable position it may occupy; while dots in excess of the prescribed minimum betoken good, notwithstanding the unfavourable position of the planet concerned. For example, if all the 8 happen to be benefic it means that the result is fully beneficial. If only 7 of them are benefic and 1 malfic, the result is $\frac{7-1}{8}$ or $\frac{3}{4}$ ths beneficial. If in any Rasi the number of benefic dots be 6 and that of malefiic strokes be 2, the result is $\frac{6-2}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{2}$ beneficial. If the number of benefic dots be 5, we should say that the effect will be $\frac{5-3}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{4}$th beneficial. If it should be 4, the result is $\frac{4-4}{8}$ or 0; that is neither good nor evil, but neutral and so on.

एकेन यः शुभः स्यात्षड्भिः स्थानैः स पापदो भवति ।
यस्तु चतुर्भिर्नेष्टः सर्वफले कल्पनाप्येवम् ॥ (बादरायणः)

Take for example the horoscope mentioned in Brihat Jataka, Chapter VII, Sloka 6, and reproduced below :

<table>
<tr><td>Lagna 30o Venus 27o</td><td>Sun10°</td><td>Mer.1° Moon 3°</td><td></td></tr>
<tr><td></td><td colspan="2" rowspan="2">Rasi Kundali</td><td>Jupiter 5°</td></tr>
<tr><td>Mars 28°</td><td></td></tr>
<tr><td></td><td></td><td>Saturn 20°</td><td></td></tr>
</table>

<table>
<tr><td>• • •
| | | | |</td><td>• • •
| | | | |</td><td>• • •
| | | | |</td><td>• • •
| | | | |</td></tr>
<tr><td>• • •
| | | |</td><td colspan="2" rowspan="2">Ashtakavarga of Mars
Benefic dots—39
Malefic Strokes—56</td><td>• • • •
| | | |</td></tr>
<tr><td>• • • • •
| | |</td><td>• • • • •
| | |</td></tr>
<tr><td>• •
| | | | | |</td><td>•
| | | | | | |</td><td>• • • • •
| | |</td><td>• •
| | | | | |</td></tr>

In the sign Mesha, there are 3 benefic dots and 5 malefic strokes. The 3 benefic dots neutralise with 3 of the malefic strokes. The net result is 2 malefic strokes which means that Mars when passing through this sign will be productive of $\frac{2}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{4}$th evil. Similarly for the other signs. There is one pecularity to be noticed in the अष्टकवर्ग (Ashtakavarga) of Mars. In sign Kumbha in the example there are 3 dots and only 4 strokes instead of 5. This is because the 10th place from the Moon has been declared to be ineffective, that is, neither benefic nor malefic—चन्द्राद्दिग्विफलेषु Chandraddigviphaleshu—for the अष्टकवर्ग (Ashtakavarga) of Mars. That place has therefore not been taken for the calculation. The net evil arising there is thus only $\frac{4-3}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{8}$th.

In the case of a planet with more benefic dots, the benefic influence will be all the greater and more marked if the planet concerned should also be posited in an उपचय (Upachaya) house (with respect to the Lagna or the Moon), or occupy a friend's house, or his own sign or his exaltation Rasi.

लग्नादुपचयसंस्थश्चन्द्राद्वा स्वगृहमूलतुङ्गस्थः ।
मित्रक्षेत्रगतो वा फलमतिशायितः शुभं दद्यात् ॥ (देवकीर्तिः)

If on the other hand the planet though getting more benefic dots should happen to be in an अपचय (Apachaya) house (reckoned either from the Lagna or the Moon), or in his depression sign or inimical sign, the good effect will be considerably reduced. If in the above case there be more malefic strokes instead of benefic dots, it will worsen the bad effect.

अपचयराशौ नीचे शत्रुक्षेत्रे च जन्मकाले स्यात् ।
यस्तु स दद्यात्पापं फलमतिशयितो यथाकालम् ॥

N. B.—The उपचय (Upachaya) or अपचय (Apachaya) places have to be reckoned with respect to the Lagna or the Moon at the time of birth and not by the position of the planets at the time of गोचर (Gochara).

cf. यवनेश्वर

यस्तु स्वनीचारिगृहोपगोन्यैर्जितारिदृष्टोऽल्पतनुर्विवर्णः ।
सूतात्रभूजन्मपतौ बलस्थे स जन्मगो वन्ध्यफलो निरुक्तः ॥

ईषत्सुहृत्स्वोच्चभूदिष्टदृष्टो मित्रर्क्षजन्मोपचये बलीयान् ।
यो जातकेऽभूत्स तु जन्मसंस्थो दद्याच्छुभं न त्वशुभोऽप्यनिष्टम् ॥

Also सत्य

जन्मन्युपचयभवने ह्येको ग्रहो ह्यपचयेषु पुष्टफलः ।
उपचयभवनोपेताः पीडास्थाने ह्यपचयाय ॥

These authors have in their turn specifically stated, by the words जन्मकाले (Janmakale), सूतौ (Sutau), जन्मनि (Janmani), that good and bad places have to be determined with respect to the positions of planets at birth-time only. But at the time of producing the effects, all planets excepting the Moon will cause their full good or bad effect to come to pass provided they are strong and not otherwise. In the case of the Moon, even if she is benefic (i.e., placed in places such as उपचय (Upachaya), etc., and the Rasi containing the Moon happening to be associated with benefic dots) if she does not possess strength, she produces only evil effects; for देवकीर्ति (Devakirti) says —

पुष्टमपुष्टं स्वफलं दद्यात्सबलो बलेन हीनस्तु ।
ग्रह इव सर्वश्चंद्रः कष्टफलो बलविहीनश्च ॥

Varahamihira too has said in his work यात्रा (Yatra) about the inability (to produce effects) on the part of planets devoid of strength owing to their being in depression, defeat in planetary war, or combustion, etc.

नीचस्था ग्रहविजिता रव्यभिभूता विरश्मयो ह्रस्वाः ।
भुजगा इव मंत्रहता भवंति कार्याक्षमा लग्ने ॥

Thus it will be seen that whatever eflects—good or bad—have been ascribed owing to the planet being placed in a sign of exaltation, Swakshetra, Upachaya, etc., it always refers to the position of the planet at the time of birth; and whatever effects, good or bad, that have been ascribed to the planet itself generally without reference in any way to the particular place of occupation should be construed as indicating the result of the planet's transit to the concerned place.

It may be mentioned here that in several Panchangams the benefic गोचर (Gochara) phalas of planets are mentioned; i.e., if particular planets in their orbit in the zodiac pass through particular places from the Moon, they become auspicious and so on. It will be seen that these are simply the benefic positions of that particular planet with respect to the Moon in that planet's Ashtakavarga and do not completely represent the entire benefic results of that planet.

The Ashtakavargas are used in connection with transits. For example Saturn transitting the 3rd 6th and 11th places from the Moon is good provided the benefic dots in those places are above 4. Suppose he is transitting the 3rd house from the Moon in a nativity where the benefic dots are below 4. He will not be very good. His coming in the 3rd house is no doubt good; but much cannot be expected of him because of the small number of benefic dots. The position in the 3rd house though good, the small number of benefic dots therein disqualifies him to do good.

It is a fact indisputable that planets wield a certain amount of influence, whether for good or evil, during their transits at the time of consideration in accordance with the number of benefic dots which the planets gain to their credit in their respective Ashtakavargas based on the position each of the planets occupy at the time of birth.

For example, let us consider the influence which the planets may produce on the sample horoscope given under, say, about the first week of December 1932.

Rahu Moon			Lagna Merc. Venus
Sat.	Radix Horoscope		Sun
	Mars	Jupiter	Ketu

Rahu	Planetary positions about the first week of Dec. 1932
Saturn			Mars Jupiter Ketu
	Sun Merc.	Venus

It will be seen in the above that the Sun is occupying Vrischika and the Sun's Ashtakavarga figure in Vrischika is 5. Mars is in Simha and the number of benefic dots in Kujas takavarga is 6. Mercury is posited in Vrischika and the number of benefic dots under Budha's Ashtakavarga is 5. Jupiter is in Simha and the number of benefic points in Jupiter's Ashtakavarga is 3. The planet Venus occupies Tula and the number of benefic dots there in the Ashtakavarga of Venus is 6. Saturn is in Makara; and in Sani's Ashtakavarga, the number of benefic dots in Makara is 4. Thus, the sum total of benefic dots for the said week for all the six planets taken together comes to 29.

Now 48 benefic dots are the maximum fixed to pass a nativity for good in all respects. It may however be safely predicted that he native will be free from worry loss, etc., and his situation will only be of a normal nature if the sum total of the benefic dots of all the six planets taken together comes to 24. In this specimen horoscope, as the number of benefic dots comes to 29, it can safely be said that the native will be free from anxiety and worry in the said period. The less the number of benefic dots, the worse will be the effects to be experienced by the native.

Bhattotpala adds:

Varahamihira has stated (Brihat Jataka, Chapter VIII, Sloka 23) that when two similar effects but contrary in nature are produced by one and the same planet (owing to its ownership of two houses, or ownership of one house and occupation of another house), the result will be nil when the two effects referred to are equal in degree and that it will partake of the nature of the preponderating effect in case they are not of equal degree.

एकग्रहस्य सदृशे फलयोर्विरोधे नाशं वदेद्यदधिकं परिपच्यते तत् ॥

A question may now be asked what the author's object was by making a similar declaration again through the words "इति निगदितमिष्टं नेष्टमन्यद्विशेषादधिकफलविपाकं जन्मभात्तत्र दद्युः." The answer is—"No, it is no repetition at all. What was stated before without the aid of Ashtakavarga Table relates to the cancellation of two similar effects but of a contrary character. For example, a planet in one capacity may be a giver of wealth; the same planet in another capacity may cause loss of wealth. In such a case, both the effects are similar in character and become neutralised with the consequence that the native neither acquires wealth nor incurs any losses. But if the planet's capacity to give wealth be in any way stronger for more reasons than one, the same will of course predominate over the opposite current (of the other effect) and the result will be an influx of some money. In the present verse it has been stated that there is cancellation in the case of good and bad effects even if they are not similar in nature. This view is further supported by बादरायण (Badarayana) and यवन (Yavana) as they have admitted this principle while speaking about Ashtakavargas and their several effects. Thus, for example, a certain planet may be the giver of gold on account of a certain reason. The same planet may on account of some other reason cause loss in silver. Though the effects in these two cases are not similar (because both are not in respect to gold, nor to silver), merely on account of the effects being opposite in nature (one giving and the other taking away), the result is neither benefic, nor malefic. After such considerations of each Rasi on account of its 8 countings, if it is found that benefic points outnumber the malefic, the effect of the planet on that Rasi should be declared as benefic to the extent of the excess benefic dots as already stated.

Now the following question may be asked: Well, if Ashtakavarga then is so important for ascertaining the nature of the effects, what was the necessity for Varahamihira treating separately in his Brihat Samhita the गोचारफल (Gocharaphala) of planets with respect to the Moon's place at birth? The answer is, the intention of Varahamihira is that such of the effects which have not been stated in connection with the Ashtakavarga should be stated in the गोचार (Gochara). Further, as गोचार (Gochara) is wide-known to all, and as it has been treated of by many authors in their works, it has to be inferred that Varahamihira too has adopted the same course followed by his predecessors. For he has said in his work यात्रा (Yatra),

यस्य गोचरफलप्रमाणता तस्य वेधफलमिष्यते न वा ।
प्रायशो न बहुसंमतं त्विदं स्थूलमार्गफलदो हि गोचरः ॥

Yavaneswara too, after describing the effects separately, has accepted this Ashtakavarga system alone as of primary importance; for he has said

फलाष्टवर्गे शुभपापलक्ष्ये समानकल्पावफलौ प्रदिष्टौ ।
उगाग्रांस्तु यस्तस्य फलं विधार्यं यात्राविधाने च समुद्भवे च ॥

Badarayana also has said

कष्टश्रेष्ठे तुल्यसंख्ये फले चेत् स्यातां नाशः फलयोस्तत्र वाच्यः ।
वाच्या पङ्क्तियोंऽतिरिक्तस्तयोः स्यात् स्थाने स्थाने कल्पनेयं प्रदिष्टा ॥ and has thus accepted only the Ashtakavarga method.

THE ASHTAKAVARGA PLATE.

The process of finding the benefic dots in the Ashtakavargas of the several planets in accordance with the method given in pages 650-652 supra involves heavy labour and considerable time especially when it has to be done for several horoscopes. Some methods of simplifying this work have been suggested in the past, but a new contrivance has now been devised which has several merits. It not only does away with the patient labor involved in the dull and routine process, but also shows the results in such a way that one can see at a glance how the benefic dots in any particular house have been contributed. The सर्वाष्टकवर्ग (Sarvashtaka varga) figures can also be very easily read from the plates at a glance. The practical uses to which the results can be put are, as is known to astrologers, several. The more important of these uses have been explained in this Adhyaya in their appropriate places.

The construction of the Ashtakavarga plate and the method of reading the results from the same will now be explained.

The contrivance consists of nine circular plates (discs of zinc, copper or brass), of successively larger radii placed one over the other in the order of their size, the largest being placed at the bottom and the smallest at the top. A radius of one inch for the smallest and three inches for the largest, the difference between the radii of successive plates being ¼th of an inch will be found suitable. The bottom-most plate has an axle with screw arrangement fixed to its centre about which the other plates revolve. By tightening the screw at the top, the plates can be fixed up in any desired position. Each plate covers the central portion of the next bigger plate, exposing to view only a circular strip or rim. The top plate is of course fully exposed.

The top plate and the narrow strips of other plates are each divided into 12 equal parts. The dividing lines are so drawn that they form a straight line when the plates are adjusted for any horoscope. The twelve divisions of the top plate are assigned to the twelve signs of the zodiac. In the visible rim of the next bigger plate are arranged the figures indicating the benefic dots counted from the Sun in the several Ashtakavargas. The next plate contains figures of benefic dots counted from the Moon; and the next one, from Mars; and so on in the order of the Sun, the Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, Saturn and the Lagna. One of the divisions of each of these plates contains a dot denoting the position of the planet to which the plate relates. Thus the dot in the largest plate indicates the position of the Lagna.

To adjust the plates for any horoscope, keep the bottom-most plate in position and rotate the next plate (relating to Saturn) until the division containing the dot is as many divisions removed from the dot in the Lagna plate as Saturn is removed from the Lagna in the horoscope under consideration. For example, if Saturn occupies the 8th house from the Lagna, move the plate relating to Saturn till its dot comes to the 8th division from the dot in the Lagna plate. Then hold the two plates in position firmly and proceed similarly with the third plate. Then hold the three plates in position and proceed with the fourth and so on. When the Sun's plate also has been thus fixed, rotate the topmost plate until the name of the particular Rasi representing the Lagna in the horoscope under consideration is brought directly above the division containing the dot in the Lagna plate. It will now be found that the divisions containing the dots in the several plates are directly below the signs of the zodiac respectively occupied by the planets at birth, so that the positions of the planets in the radix of the native can now be read out from the plate itself. Fix up the plates by tightening the screw at the top. They are now ready for reading the results. The '1's indicate benefic dots relating to the Sun's Ashtakavarga; the '2's indicate those relating to the Moon's, and so on. The number of '1's in the several plates in the 'Mesha' division represents the benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of the Sun in that division; the number of '1's in the several plates opposite to 'Vrishabha' representing the benefic dots in the Sun's Ashtakavarga in Vrishabha and so on. Similarly, the number of '2's in the divisions of the plates opposite to 'Mesha' represents the benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of the Moon in 'Mesha;' the number of '2's in the parts of the plates opposite to 'Vrishabha,' the benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of the Moon in 'Vrishabha;' and so on. The number of '3's will similarly yield the results for Mars, '4's for Mercury, '5's for Jupiter, '6's for Venus and '7's for Saturn. The figure in the next page shows the plate properly arranged for the positions of the planets in the sample horoscope given below:—

	Lagna	Venus	Moon
			Sun Mercury
			Jupiter Mars
	Saturn

It will be seen that the dotted division of the plate relating to the Sun has been brought against Kataka as the Sun occupies Kataka in the Kundali (कुण्डली); the dotted part of the plate relating to the Moon has been arranged against Mithuna as the Moon occupies Mithuna; the dotted part of the plate relating to Mars has been brought against Simha as he occupies Simha; and so on. It will further be observed that there are six '1's in the divisions against Mesha, four in the divisions against Vrishabha, and so on. Similarly, there are five '2's against Mesha, four '2's against Vrishabha, and so on. These represent benefic dots in the Ashtakavargas of the Sun, the Moon, etc., in the several houses. The number of figures (irrespective of what planet they relate to) in the several divisions against a particular house indicates the Samudaya Ashtakavarga (समुदायाष्टकवर्ग) in that house. For example, it will be found that there are 34 figures in the divisions against Mesha. 34 is therefore the number of benefic dots in Mesha in the Samudaya Ashtakvarga. Similarly for other houses.

Slokas 1 and 2. If a diagram of the zodiac with the rising sign and the positions of the Sun and other planets (at the time of any person's birth) &c. be drawn, and if all the benefic dots produced by the separate Ashtakavargas (8 fold groups of figures) be set down according to the directions contained in the Ashtaka-varga formulas each containing eight divisions in respect of the eight sky-rangers beginning with the Sun and ending with the Lagna or the rising sign we should then obtain the figures 48, 49, 39, 54, 56, 52 and 39 to represent the benefic dots of the Sun and other planets. The figure 337 will represent the aggregate benefic dots of the planets. सर्वाष्टकवर्ग (Sarvashtakavarga) or the sum of all the Ashtakavargas is called समुदाय (Samudaya) i.e. aggregate.

Sloka 3. In whatever bhava represented by Mesha and other signs occur eight benefic dots given by planets, that bhava, they serve to support, strengthen and prosper. Houses containing 5, 6 and 7 dots become beneficent. Those that have 3, 2 or 1 dot are not auspicious.

Sloka 4. When a house has 4 dots, it produces mixed effects. Those houses that have no figure in them are productive of disease, infamy and danger. I now proceed to explain the full effects of the Sun and other planets being associated with dots 1, 2, etc., as a result of the separate Ashtakavargas.

करोति नानाविधरोगदुःखभयाटनादीनि च सैकबिन्दुः ।

Sloka 5. A planet associated with one dot produces various kinds of diseases, miseries, dangers, wanderings and similar hardships, while with two, it leads to mental anguish, condemnation by one's king (censure by the sovereign) and deprivation of food by robbers.

NOTES.

The excess of benefic over malefic dots may be 2, 4, 6 or 8 which when put in ordinary language mean $\frac{2}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{4}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{2}$. $\frac{6}{8}$ or, $\frac{3}{4}$, $\frac{8}{8}$ or full. Hence the following slokas :—

Sloka 6. When the number of dots are three, it causes many bodily privations and discomforts due to a wandering life as well as much mental uneasiness. The planet with four dots yields a mixed kind of fruit consisting of pleasure and pain, expenditure of money and accession of wealth.

Sloka 7. Where the dots happen to be five, it leads to the attainment of good apparel, fondling of children, association with the good, acquisition of learning and wealth. A planet that has 6 dots secures a form fresh and fascinating, excellence of character, victory in war, wealth, fame, strength and fine vehicles.

Sloka 8. When the number of dots go up to 7, the planet brings honors such as accrue from the possession of horses and other means of transport, an army and superior riches. When the maximum of eight dots is reached, it opens out a prospect of kingly glory graced with its seven-fold adjuncts (स्वाम्यमात्यसुहृत्कोशराष्ट्रदुर्गबलानि).

NOTES.

Some books read सर्वगुणाभिराम which would mean kingly glory graced with every one of its adjuncts.

Sloka 9. A planet is invariably benefic in his own varga in any sign which has five or more dots. If otherwise, it yields no good effect. In its range in a sign which is without dots, it becomes positively hurtful.

Sloka 10. All planets without exception, standing, it may be, in their exaltation signs, in a friendly sign or other benefic places and possessed also of the strength which a Kendra or similar position gives, produce untoward effects if they happen to be associated with dots short of the required minimum.

Sloka 11. But planets on the other hand which may be in bad positions and have even reached their depression point, or an inimical sign or portions of the same will invariably yield good if associated with dots which are in excess of the prescribed minimum.

Sloka 12. When Saturn passes through an empty (void of figures) house in the Ashtakavargas of the Sun and other planets, he occasions on a large scale diseases, dangers from enemies and other troubles to father and other relations whom the several planets represent.

Sloka 13. When the Sun is in the rising sign and in that part of it which either belongs to an enemy or forms his depression point and when he happens to be associated with 3 or 2 dots, the person born is sickly. But if the same Sun should be in the rising sign in which 5 or more dots appear and which happens to be his exaltation sign or his own house, the person born becomes a king and is endowed with long life.

Sloka 20. If Mars be associated with 8 benefic dots the person born will become a petty prince; if the above be in the 10th or in the 1st bhava, the person born will be a king. If he be already a scion of a royal family, he will become lord of the whole country. If Mars be in exaltation or in स्वक्षेत्र (Swakshetra) in addition to the above, the person born will be an emperor.

If Mercury in exaltation be associated with but one, two or three benefic dots, the bhava occupied by the planet is advanced and not impaired.

Sloka. 22. Find in which house there is the greatest number of benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of Mercury. In the month corresponding to that house the commencement of any serious study will culminate in the acquisition of every branch of learning. Mark the house which is void of benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of Mercury; when Saturn passes through that house in the course of its progress through its orbit, some बन्धु (Bandhu) or ज्ञाति (Jnati, a near paternal relation) will die; some benefit or advantage enjoyed till then will be lost.

In the lagna corresponding to the house found, impregnation will answer its purpose resulting in an offspring. Cattle, wealth and vehicles located in the direction indicated by the sign in question will begin to multiply.

NOTES.

Note that the planets here have been mentioned in the order of their orbits round tne Zodiac.

Let us now draw the प्रस्ताराष्टकवर्ग (Prastharashtaka Varga) Table and set therein the benefic dots for the Sun's Ashtakavarga in the sample horoscope referred to in page 657 supra.

The 48 benefic dots will be distributed as shown below :

There are three benefic dots in Mesha, and it will be seen that these have been contributed by the Sun, Mercury and the Lagna. While the other five planets have each contributed a malefic one.

When the Sun transits through the sign Mesha, he will give benefic results only during three periods viz., the 4th, the 6th and the 8th portions, that is when he is passing from (1) $11\frac{1}{4}°$ to $15°$ (2) $18\frac{3}{4}°$ to $22\frac{1}{2}°$ and (3) $26\frac{1}{4}°$ to $30°$ of that sign ; the remaining five periods will prove malefic. Similarly in the case of the rest.

To this मन्त्रेश्वर adds in his फलदीपिका

भवनद्वयशून्ये तु शोधयेदन्यमन्दिरम् ॥

The two slokas represent the opposite views of two distinct schools. The conflicting views rest on two distinct interpretations put upon the sloka enunciating the rule for त्रिकोणशोधना (Trikona-sodhana). "त्रिकोणेषु च यन्न्यूनं तत्तुल्यं त्रिपु शोधयेत्" which when translated will stand thus:—When one of three triangular houses contains the least number of benefic dots the same is to be subtracted from the figure in each of the triangular group. This rendering is not accepted by some who maintain that "तत्तुल्यं त्रिपु शोधयेत्" means that the figures in the three signs of a triangular group are to be altered so as to equal the least number. The latter view is advanced by बलभद्र (Balabhadra) and appears to be current in Southern India.

For the example referred to in sloka 34 above, the subjoined charts show the Suryashtakavarga figures before and after Trikona reduction:

Sloka 39. Leave out the signs Simha and Kataka. The figures in the five pairs of the remaining signs belonging to the five planets reckoned from Mars, whether alike or unlike, represented by zero, associated with planets or not associated with them, have to be subjected to the process of the reduction styled एकाधिपत्यशोधना (Ekadhipatyaṣodhana), and their net value obtained.

These for the 12 signs from Mesha onwards are 7, 10, 8, 4, 10, 5, 7, 8, 9, 5, 11 and 12. Ascertain also the sum-total of the Graha products obtained by multiplying the figures in the signs occupied by the several planets into their appropriate Graha multipliers. These for the 7 Grahas from the Sun onwards are 5, 5, 8, 5, 10, 7 and 5. Add the aggregate of Rasi products to the aggregate of Graha products. Divide the grand total by 30. 2	Sun's A. V. After Ekadhipatya reduction Slokas 39-42		2	22	Sun's A V. After Rasi-Gunakara (Sl. 44-45.) Rasi Gunaka =162.		8
0			3	0			30
2	2	2	0	18	16	14	0

Similarly the Graha Gunaka will be 90, [composed of 10+14 for Mercury and Venus in Mithuna, 10 for the Sun in Kataka, 20 for Jupiter in Tula, 16 for Mars in Vrischika, 10 for Saturn in Kumbha and 10 for the Moon in Meena.]

The sum of Rasi Gunaka and Graha Gunaka is 162+90 or 252.

The Ayus contributed by the Sun is $\frac{252}{30}$ or $8\frac{2}{5}$ years. Similarly for the other planets.

But both बलभद्र (Balabhadra) and मन्त्रेश्वर (Manthreswara) prescribe a method different from this for calculating the भिन्नाष्टकवर्गायुर्दाय (Bhinnashtakavargayurdaya).

एवं गुणित्वा संयोज्य सप्तभिर्गुणयेत् पुनः ।

Multiply the sum total of the two products (viz., those for Rasi and Graha) by 7 and divide the product by 27. The quotient will be in years, months, etc. When the number of years thus obtained exceeds 27, subtract from it 27 or multiples of 27. The result will be the Ayus given by the planet when not liable to the reductions to be mentioned at the foot-note to the next sloka.

उच्चं गतस्य द्विगुणं तदीयं नीचं गतस्यास्तगतस्य चार्द्धम् ।
अतोऽन्तराले त्वनुपातमायुरारस्य वक्रे द्विगुणीकृतं स्यात् ॥ ४६ ॥

Sloka 46. If a planet be in its exaltation, double the number of years obtained for it by the Ashtakavarga process. If it be depressed or eclipsed, the number of years in its case is to be halved. Obtain by proportion the Ayus when the planet occupies an intermediate position. In the case of Mars when retrograde, the Ayus obtained is to be doubled.

NOTES.

Compare what मन्त्रेश्वर & बलभद्र say on the subject :

अन्योन्यमर्द्धहरणं ग्रहयुक्ते तु कारयेत् ।
नीचेऽर्द्धमस्तगेऽप्यर्द्धहरणं तेषु कारयेत ॥
शत्रुक्षेत्रत्रिभागोनं दृश्यार्द्धहरणं तथा ।

अष्टवर्गदशामार्गः सर्वेषामुत्तमोत्तमः ॥

The Ayus obtained is to be halved when the planet yielding the Ayurdaya has another planet associated with it in the same bhava. The same reduction is to be made when a planet is depressed or obscured by the Sun's rays. If the planet occupy an inimical house or be in the visible hemisphere, the reduction is by $\frac{1}{3}$. When the Sun and the Moon being in the nodes suffer eclipse, the reduction is also by $\frac{1}{3}$. Where several reductions crop up, it will be enough if the greatest of them be made. The net years, months, &c. thus obtained is to be multiplied by 324 and divided by 365. The life-period will be obtained in years (of 365 days) months, etc. In this way, ascertain severally the Dasa periods of all the planets. The Ashtakavarga process is the best of all.

Sloka 47. In the case of planets that have attained their मूलत्रिकोण, स्वक्षेत्र (Moolatrikona, Swakshetra) or a friendly house or occupy such benefic vargas as their exaltation, and are in conjunction with benefic planets or are aspected by them, the Ayus is to be calculated in the manner prescribed above. When a planet is in the varga of a malefic or inimical planet the Ayus arrived at must undergo reduction.

Sloka 48. The number of years representing the maximum period of life in the case of men is obtained by putting together the figures denoting the years given by the Sun and other planets. These latter, some say upon the authority of great teachers (like पराशर-Parasara) should be supplemented by the number of years for the Lagna (deduced from the Lagna ashtakavarga) in order to get the Ayus conformably with the conditions of any horoscope that may be under examination.

In the Lagna Ashtakavarga, the benefic places of the Lagna are the 3rd, 4th, 6th 10th, 11th and 12th houses from the Sun the 3rd, 6th, 10th, 11th and 12th houses from the Moon; the 1st, 3rd, 6th, 10th and 11th houses from Mars; the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 6th, Sloka 49. When the Moon occupies any bhava other than a Kendra and is in conjunction with another planet, it is the Ashtakavargayurdaya that should be calculated. The same Ayurdaya is appropriate when the 10th bhava is occupied by benefic and malefic planets .

Sloka 50. The figures indicating benefic dots that appear in the signs occupied by the Sun and other planets in any भिन्नाष्टकवर्ग (Bhinnashtakavarga) when put together represent the number of years of Ayurdaya arising from that Bhinnashtakavarga subject to the reductions mentioned already.

NOTES.

The total of the net Ayurdayas in the 7 Bhinnashtakavargas is the length of life, according to the viev expounded in this sloka.

Sloka 51. In the Ashtakavarga of any planet, make the two reductions and multiply the total of the remaining benefic dots into the number of benefic dots (before reduction) in the particular bhava whereof the planet is कारक (Karaka,) reckoned from the place occupied by the planet. Divide the product by 27 and ascertain the asterism corresponding to the remainder. When Saturn passes through this asterism, death will take place of the person indicated by the bhava and its कारक (Karaka). If the Sun be the भावकारक (bhavakaraka), it is the father that will die; if the Moon, the mother; if Mars, a brother; if Mercury, a relation; if Jupiter, a son; if Venus, a wife; if Saturn, it is the owner of the horoscope that will die; if at the time mentioned, the persons named do not die, some others on a par with them will die or much wealth and prosperity will be lost.

NOTES.

Thus, in the example in p. 657, the 9th house counted from the Sun is Meena. The figure there in the Sun's Ashtakavarga is 5 (vide chart in p. 686). The sum total of the benefic dots remaining after the two reductions is 19 (see p. 690). Multiplying 5 by 19 and dividing by 27 we get 14. The 14th star counted from Aswini is चित्रा (Chithra). When Saturn passes through this asterism, we have to say that the father of the native or some others on a par with him may die or much wealth and prosperity may be lost.

Sloka 52. Draw up a diagram of the zodiac exhibiting in its several houses the aggregate benefic dots given by the Sun and other planets and arranged appropriately in Mesha and the other Rasis. I shall now proceed to treat of the effect upon each bhava of the benefic dots grouped in it.

NOTES.

The following 2 mnemonic slokas from (मन्त्रेश्वर) Manthreswara's फलदीपिका (Phaladeepika) give the aggregate of the benefic dots appearing in the 12 places with reference to the seven planets and the lagna in the several Ashtakavargas. The order of the planets is from the Sun onwards, and Lagna appears as the 8th.

The figures are indicated by the convention commonly called कटपयादिसंख्या (Katapayadhisankhya) given below: (1) कादिनव (Kadinava), (2) टादिनव (Tadinava), (3) पादिपञ्च (Padipancha), (4) याद्यष्टौ (Yadyashtow)

The statement in the next page shows in a tabulal form the figures of benefic dots for the सर्वाष्टकवर्ग (Sarvashtaka Narga) according to the above slokas for the sample horoscope referred to in page 657. It enables one to find out from a glance how many benefic dots have been contributed by the several planets in each of the 12 Rasis.

* The figures from Mars ought to be 4, 5, 3, 4, 3, 3, 4, 4, 4, 6, 7, 2. But see foot-note to शुक्राष्टकवर्ग (Sukrashtakavarga) p. 652.

§ The figures from Jupiter ought to be 2, 1, 1, 2, 3, 4, 2, 4, 2, 4, 7, 4. But see foot-note to चन्द्राष्टकवर्ग (Chandrashtakavarga) p. 650.

number of benefic dots up to 25 appearing in any bhava are void of effect. From 25 to 30 benefic dots in a bhava produce medium effect. More than 30 benefic dots in any bhava produce happiness, wealth and fame while serving to advance the bhava wherein they appear.

Some recommend the omission of the benefic dots in the 12th as well as in the 8th bhava from their several divisions; the aggregate benefic dots in any one division should be compared with the same in the other two. Sloka 70. Make the Trikona and Ekadhipatya reductions in regard to the सर्वाष्टकवर्ग (Sarvashtakavarga) figures. Out of the figures left after the two reductions in the several Rasis, go on subtracting 12 as often as possible. If the reduced figure happens to be 12 itself, it is not to be taken away. The figures contained in Mesha and other Rasis are to be thus treated.

Sloka 71. Multiply the net figures in the (सर्वाष्टकवर्ग) Sarvashtakavarga (after the reductions mentioned in the previous sloka have been made) by the zodiacal and planetary factors and make an aggregate of the products. Multiply this by 7 and divide the product by 27. The quotient consisting of years, months, days, etc., if in excess of the standard Ayus, i.e. 100 years, should be diminished by 100 years; if short of 100 is to be kept unaltered. This will represent the नक्षत्रायुस (Nakshatra Ayus) which when multiplied by 324 and divided by 365 will give the period of life correctly in solar years.

THE EFFECTS OF THE 1ST AND THE 2ND BHAVAS,

Sloka 1. I am to treat of the good and other effects which are the chief source of adornment to the science of astrology just as they arise in the several bhavas appertaining to men owing to the prepondera· ting influence of planets. Among the Lagna and other bhavas, such as are occupied or aspected by Venus, Mercury, Jupiter or the भावपति (Bhavapathi-the lord of the bhava concerned), but unaspected by or unassociated with the rest, produce happy results.

cf. उत्तरपाराशर

Sloka 2. When the Lagna and some of the other bhavas have benefic planets appearing in them or are occupied or aspected by their lords, a wealth of the said bhavas may be declared to exist provided they are unaspected or unoccupied by malefic planets.

नीचस्थो रिपुराशिस्थः खेटो भावविनाशकः ।
मूलस्वतुङ्गमित्रस्थो भाववृद्धिकरो भवेत् ॥ ३ ॥

Sloka 3. A planet in its depression or inimical sign destroys the bhava that it owns. But in its मूलत्रिकोण (Moolatrikona), exaltation or friendly sign it advances the same.

Sloka 4. When a bhava has its lord in the 6th, the 8th or the 12th, or is occupied by the lord of one of these three, it suffers annihilation, say those that know the properties of a bhava. If such a bhava be aspected by a benefic planet, the effect will be different.

Sloka 5. If the lord of a bhava occupying a Kendra or Trikona position from the Lagna possess abundant strength being either aspected by benefic planets or in its exaltation and other Vargas, that bhava, say the wise astrologers, is in a flourishing condition.

Sloka 6. Astrologers pronounce the strength of a bhava such as the Lagna to be ample and thoroughly beneficent when a Trikona, the 4th, the 7th or the 10th place therefrom is occupied by an auspicious planet or भावप (bhavapa—the lord of the bhava) and is unoccupied or unaspected by malefic planets. A bhava suffers decay when the positions referred to above are differently occupied and aspected. The effect of a bhava will be mixed when the positions noted above are occupied or aspected by benefic and malefic planets promiscuously.

Sloka 7. Of the Lagna and other bhavas examined in succession, whichever bhava has its lord occupying the 8th place (from it) or obscured by the solar rays or in depression or in an inimical house, while no benefic planets aspect or are associated with it, the astrologers declare the total destruction of such a bhava. The lord of the bhava concerned even in the event of being associated with other planets is incapable of producing any good effect.

Sloka 9. A planet may even be badly placed or occupy a नवांश (Navamsa) owned by a malefic, inimical or its own depression sign ; it will nevertheless prove beneficial when the Navamsa or Rasi occupied by it is its own, or that of its exaltation sign or of a friendly planet no less than when benefic planets aspect it.

भावेशाक्रान्तराशीशे दुःस्थे भावस्य दुर्बलम् ।
स्वोच्चमित्रस्वराशिस्थे भावपुष्टिं वदेद्बुधः ॥ १० ॥

Sloka 10. When the planet owning the sign occupied by the lord of a bhava is badly placed, the bhava becomes weak. But when the planet referred to above is in its exaltation, in a friendly sign or in its own house, the astrologer may pronounce the bhava to be flourishing.

Sloka 11. When the lord of a bhava, the friends of the भावप (bhavapa) and the lord of the exaltation sign of the भावप (bhavapa) occupy the 11th, the 2nd and the 3rd places in respect to the bhava, those planets advance the strength of the bhava, provided they be not eclipsed or in an unfriendly sign or in depression.

Sloka 14. The more auspicious the rising sign is at a person's birth, the longer will he live; the more will he command the respect of the rulers and the happier in consequence will he be. And if the rising sign be also aspected by its lord, he will be a master of riches, quite a genius and a great credit to his family.

Sloka 15. An astrologer may declare the nature and peculiar features of a person from the lord of the rising Navamsa at his birth or from a powerful planet occupying the Lagna. His hue should be guessed from the lord of the Navamsa occupied by the Moon. All good and evil in the life of the person is to be ascertained through the Lagna.

NOTES.

This sloka appears in जातकरत्न. The reading there is शुभग्रहैर्मानगते for शुभग्रहागारगते.

NOTES.

For the first पाद, जातकरत्न reads लग्नेश्वरे रन्ध्रगते च दुष्टे.

If the planet be in the 2nd bhava and have attained its exaltation and other benefic vargas he will have remarkable celebrity. If the planet be in a bad place, he will be knocked up by ceaseless travelling or will be a knave. But if the planet occupy a Kendra or Trikona in conjunction with a benefic planet, the person will have ease in travelling.

If the lord of the 3rd bhava be in the Lagna or the कारक (Karaka-Mars) as well as the lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratrubhava) be together in one house and possess strength, a brother of the person born will become renowned.

NOTES.

For the latter half of this sloka, जातकरत्न has the following:

NOTES.

विद्याधिप (Vidyadhipa) here means the lord of the 2nd bhava; (vide sloka 49 infra) and not that of the 4th bhava referred to in XII—59 infra.

Sloka 27. When the lord of the Lagna is in an auspicious sign and is possessed of strengh, the person born will be in good ease having a command of all bodily comforts. When the planet in the Lagna is in a depression or inimical Navamsa and happens to be the lord of a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana), the person born will lack bodily comforts.

Sloka 29. When the Lagna is a watery sign and is occupied by benefic planets, astrologers declare stoutness of person as the effect thereof. When the lord of the Lagna occupies a watery sign and is in conjunction with benefic planets, the person born, say the astrologers, will have a sound constitution.

NOTES.

तोयगते is the reading adopted in जातकरत्न for तोयखगे in the 3rd पाद of this sloka.

लग्नाधिपे नाशगते तु शुष्कराशौ तनोः कष्टमतीव कृच्छ्रम् ।
लग्नाधिपस्थांशपराशिनाथः शुष्कग्रहः स्यात्तनुशुष्कमाहुः ॥ ३० ॥

Sloka 30. When the lord of the Lagna is in the 8th bhava and in a dry sign, astrologers say that the person born will have great bodily suffering. If the lord of the Rasi in which is the planet owning the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the Lagna be a planet owning a dry sign, the effect will be emaciation.

NOTES.

Some books read लग्नांशपस्थांशपराशिनाथः

Sloka 31. When the lord of the Lagna is between two inimical planets, the person born will be in dread of enemies. If Ketu or Rahu be in the Lagna and the lord thereof be in a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana 6th, 8th or 12th), the person will suffer privation of some limb in the ripening of the dasa of the lord of the Lagna and in the antardasa of the lord of the 6th house (from the lord of the Lagna). If the lord of the 6th house from the Lagna occupy it in conjunction with Rahu or Ketu, an ulcer will break out in the body.

NOTES.

This appears in जातकरत्न. In the 3rd पाद, तदधीश is the reading adopted there for तदरीश in the text.

बलैर्विहीने यदि लग्ननाथे केन्द्रत्रिकोणे सति रोगभाक् स्यात् ।
लग्नेश्वराधिष्ठितराशिनाथे दुःस्थानगे दुर्बलदेहवान् स्यात् ॥ ३२ ॥

Sloka 32. If the lord of the Lagna occupying a Trikona or a Kendra be devoid of strength, the person born will be ailing. If the lord of the house occupied by the lord of the Lagna be in a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana), he will have a weak constitution.

NOTES.

(First half). The following yoga leading to the same effect is given in जातकरत्न.

सक्रूरो देहपो देहसौख्यहान्त्यारिरन्ध्रगः ।

Sloka 33. The lord of the Lagna occupying the 12th, 6th or 8th bhava (from the Lagna) in conjunction with a malefic planet destroys the bodily health of the person born. He will be ailing if the lord of the 1st bhava in conjunction with the lord of the 6th occupies a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana) or the Lagna.

Sloka 35. If the lord of the sign occupied by the lord of the Lagna be in the 8th place from the Lagna, the person will be weak. Bhavas generally become weak when their lords are in Rasis of which the owners are badly placed (i.e. are in दुःस्थान Duhsthana).

If the lord of the Lagna occupying the 12th bhava be in conjunction with the lord of the 6th bhava from that occupied by the Sun, the person born will get readily married, be characterized by much hair about his person, have a slim figure and a hue composed of red and white. If the lord of the 6th bhava from the Lagna be also in conjunction with the lord of the Lagna in the above position, the person born will be dark in personal appearance; but if Rahu be with the lord of the Lagna, the person concerned will surely run the risk of treachery or poison.

धनस्थे यदि लग्नशे निधिमान् बलसंयुते ।
दुर्बले पापसंयुक्ते वंचनादिफलं वदेत् ॥ ५२ ॥

Sloka 52. When the lord of the Lagna occupies the 2nd bhava in strength, the person born will pessess a treasure. If the planet in question be weak and associated with a malefic planet, the person concerned will suffer the consequence of deception or other trick practised upon him.

Sloka 53. When the planet occupying the 2nd bhava is aspected by a malefic planet and is unfriendly to the lord of that bhava or in depression or eclipsed by the Sun's rays, the person born will suffer pecuniary loss in the ripening of the dasa of that planet. The same thing happens when the planet in question in its progress through the zodiac becomes powerful for evil.

Sloka 54. When the 2nd bhava is occupied by many (benefic) planets and the धनकारक (Dhanakaraka) is possessed of strength or occupies its exaltation, a friendly sign or its own house, the person born, say the astrologers, will be getting wealth till the moment of his death.

NOTES.

धनप्रद (Dhanaprada) may also mean the lord of the 2nd bhava.

मातृस्थानस्वामिना मातृवित्तं यद्भावेशेनान्विते तद्धनं स्यात् ५५

Sloka 55. When the lord of the 2nd bhava is in the Lagna associated with the lord of the 3rd, the person born will get wealth acquired by a brother. If the lord of the 4th bhava take the place of the lord of the 3rd bhava in the above, the person concerned will inherit property from his mother. Generally, wealth comes in connection with that bhava whereof the lord occupies the Lagna in conjunction with the lord of wealth.

यद्भावस्थौ लग्नवित्तेश्वरौ चेत् तन्मूला तु द्रव्यवित्तिर्नराणाम् ५६

Sloka 56. When the lord of wealth occupies the Lagna and the lord of that bhava occupies the 2nd, wealth comes to the person born without any effort at all. Whatever bhava the lords of the 1st and 2nd bhavas may together occupy, it is through that bhava that acquisition of wealth on the part of men usually takes place.

Sloka 57. When the Moon occupying the 2nd bhava is aspected by Venus, the person born will be munificent. If Mercury in the 2nd bhava be aspected by a benefic planet, he will have, be it remembered, wealth at his command at all times.

Sloka 58. Note in what quarter the lord of the 2nd bhava is; it is in that quarter chiefly that men will find their prosperity during the dasa period of the lord of the 2nd bhava: for when moving ordinarily the planet leads to the acquisition of wealth in the region indicated. If it be retrograde at the time of birth, there will be acquisition of every valuable thing in all quarters.

Sloka 59. If the lord of the 2nd bhava be in the 11th and the lord of the 11th be in the 2nd or the 11th, or if the lords of the 2nd and the 11th bhavas from the Lagna occupy a Kendra, the person born will be wealthy and renowned.

NOTES.

NOTES.

For the same effect the following yoga is quoted in जातकरत्न.

Sloka 65. A person becomes night-blind when Venus, the Moon and the lord of the 2nd bhava are together in one bhava. When the Sun, Venus and the lord of the 1st bhava are invisible (being in that portion of the zodiac which comprises the bhavas from 2 to 7, both inclusive), the person concerned will have eyes of medium visual power.

NOTES.

This (एक in एकस्थैः) in the light of Sloka 59 of Adhyaya 6 should be taken to refer to the 1st bhava or the Lagna.

Sloka 21. The lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratrubhava) and Mars occupying a sign owned by a female planet and capable of causing the birth of brothers and sisters will prove beneficial to the brothers: The same planets occupying a sign belonging to a male planet under the same circumstances will be auspicious to the sisters that the Jataka will have.

स्त्रीहोरया वा युवतिग्रहेण युक्ते यदि भ्रातृगृहे विलग्नात् ।
सहोदरीलाभमुपैति जातः सहोदरं तत्परतोऽन्यथा चेत् ॥ २२ ॥

Sloka 22. If the 3rd bhava from the Lagna be connected by a female होरा (hora) i.e. the Moon's, or occupied by a female planet, the person born will have a sister next after himself. If the conditions be otherwise, i.e., the hora of the 3rd bhava or the planet occupying it be male, the person concerned will have a brother born immediately after him.

कारकः सहजाधीशस्तद्दर्शी तत्र संस्थितः ।
इष्टानिष्टकरास्तेषां स्वदशान्तर्दशासु च ॥ २३ ॥

Sloka 23. The कारक (Karaka) of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratrubhava), its lord, the planet aspecting it, and the one occupying it—these four are beneficial or otherwise in their dasa and antardasa periods.

कारकादिचतुःखेटस्फुटयोगांशकानुजाः ।
वर्ज्या नीचारिमूढांशाः स्वोच्चांशा द्विगुणीकृताः ॥ २४ ॥

Sloka 24. Ascertain the Navamsa attained by the four classes of planets explained in the preceding sloka. Take away from them those amsas that represent depression, inimical and eclipsed Navamsas and double the swakshetra and exaltation Navamsas. The result will represent the number of the after-borns.

NOTES.

The following sloka from जातकरत्न gives another method :

तृतीयराशीश्वरसंस्थितांशं भौमान्वितांशं च कुजात्तृतीये ।
तदीश्वरांशं च समेन योज्यं त्रिभागलब्धं सहजाः क्रमेण ॥

Find the number signified by (1) the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the 3rd bhava (2) the Navamsa occupied by Mars and (3) the Navamsa where the lord of the 3rd house from Mars is posited. Add these and take a third. This will represent the numher of after-borns.

तृतीयात्सप्तमर्क्षेण भ्रातृभार्याफलं वदेत् ।
लग्नेशकुजसोत्थेशा भ्रात्रनिष्टशुभप्रदाः ॥ २५ ॥

Sloka 25. It is with reference to the 7th place from the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratru bhava) in a person's horoscope should an astrologer make a prediction regarding his brother's wife. The planets that influence the brother's fortunes for the worse or the better are (1) the lord of the Lagna (2) Mars and (3) the lord of the 3rd bhava.

अन्योन्यमिष्टविपुलं तु सहोदराणां
लग्नाधिपेन सहिते यदि सोदरेशे ।
अन्योन्यमिष्टखचरौ यदि तौ बलाढ्यौ
लग्नेऽथवा सहजभे न विभागमाहुः ॥ २६ ॥

Sloka 26. There will be much fraternal affection among the brothers of a person if the lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratru bhava) in his horoscope be in conjunction with the lord of the Lagna. If these two planets, being naturally friendly and possessed of strength at the same time, occupy the Lagna or the 3rd bhava, astrologers say there will be no partition of property among the brothers (during their life time).

NOTES.

This as well as slokas 27, 30 and 32 appear in जातकरत्न.

लग्नेशानुजनायकौ विबलिनावन्योन्यशत्रुग्रहौ
दुश्चिक्यस्थितकारकौ च यदि वा दुःस्थानगौ दुर्बलौ ।

Sloka 27. If the lords of the Lagna and the 3rd bhava be weak and mutually inimical, or if the planet occupying the 3rd bhava and its कारक (Karaka) be weak and occupy a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana), the astrologer is to say, there will arise at the time when the dasa (पाक-Paka) of the weak, inimical or ill-placed planet matures itself, quarrel and confusion among the brothers, their ruin, waste of wealth, culminating in rankling feud or closing reconciliation and other such events according to the nature of the planets associated with those that bring about a breach among the brothers.

गुरुदृष्टेऽनुजे शुक्रे भ्रातृरक्षणतत्परः ।
रविदृष्टे बुधे सोत्थे सुहृन्नाशकरो भवेत् ॥ २८ ॥

Sloka 28. When Venus aspected by Jupiter occupies the 3rd bhava, the person born will devotedly cherish his brothers and sisters. If Mercury occupying the 3rd bhava be aspected by the Sun, he will alienate the affection of those that would otherwise be friendly.

cf. जातकाभरण

Sloka 29. If the planet occupying the 3rd bhava, its lord, or its कारक (Karaka) be in depression, in an inimical house or in a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana), the astrologers say, there will happen in the dasa and antardasa period of a planet such as has been described, loss of wealth and energy, discomfiture or the death of a brother or sister.

Sloka 30. Subtract the figures for the lord of the 3rd bhava from those for the lord of the Lagna. When Saturn arrives at the asterism indicated by the remainder in the above process, the astrologer is to divine the death of a brother or sister of the person born. Again, from the figures obtained above, subtract the figures for the lord of the 10th bhava and Mars. The result indicates the Rasi which when Saturn occupies, a similar event is likely to take place. Thirdly, add the figures for the 4 planets mentioned above; when Saturn occupies the अंश (Amsa) denoted by the aggregate, the same event may happen.

NOTES.

स्फुटतः सहोदरपतिं is the reading adopted in जातकरत्न instead of स्फुटतस्तु मानगृहपं in the 3rd पाद of this sloka.

चतुस्फुटाक्रान्तदृगाणराशिं गते गुरौ सोदरनाशमाहुः ।
तत्तारकानाथदशानुजानामतीव संपत्सुखदायिनी स्यात् ॥ ३१ ॥

Sloka 31. Find out the Drekkana indicated by the sum total of the figures for the four planets connected with the (भ्रातृभाव-Bhratru bhava) 3rd bhava. When Jupiter passes through the sign owning the Drekkana in question, astrologers say, there may be the loss of a brother or sister. Find the asterism indicated by the sum total above referred to. The dasa period of the planet presiding over the star will be greatly productive of happiness and prosperity to the younger brothers.

Sloka 32. Subtract the figures for Rahu from those for Mars. When Jupiter passes through the triangular signs indicated by the remainder, there may be the loss of a younger brother or sister. Subtract the figures for Mars from those for Rahu. When Jupiter passes through the particular Rasi and Navamsa corresponding to the remainder, there may be the loss of an elder brother or sister. Find the Rasi corresponding to the sum total of the figures for the lords of the rising sign at the time of birth or conception and of the 10th bhava. When Jupiter traverses this Rasi, the birth of a younger brother or sister may be expected.

NOTES.

In the last पाद the reading in जातकरत्न is slightly different, viz. लग्नाब्ज्ञातृपलग्नपस्फुटयुते.

विक्रमाधिपतौ स्वोच्चे नाशस्थे पापसंयुते ।
चरराशौ चरांशस्थे युद्धात्पूर्वं दृढो भवेत् ॥ ३३ ॥

Sloka 33. When the lord of the 3rd bhava being in exaltation occupies the 8th bhava in conjunction with a malefic planet in a moveable sign and in a Navamsa owned by a moveable sign, the person concerned will be firm at the prospect of battle.

NOTES.

In this connection compare the following yogas given in जातकरत्न.

शौर्याधिपे तुङ्गगते बलाढ्ये केन्द्रत्रिकोणे यदि सौम्यदृष्टे ।
मूलत्रिकोणे स्वगृहेऽथगेहे वैशेषिकांशे पुरुषः स धीरः ॥

Sloka 34. If, when the कारक (karaka) of the 3rd bhava is either weak or associated with a malefic 60th portion of a sign, the lord of the same bhava be either aspected by or in conjunction with a benefic planet, the person born will prove victorious in war.

बहिर्गदो हृद्गदजाड्ययुक्तः केत्वन्विते मान्दियुते तथैव ॥ ३७ ॥

Slokas 35—37. If the lord of the 3rd bhava be associated with the Sun, the person born will be valiant; if with the Moon, he will be firm-minded; if with Mars, he will be depraved, senseless and irritable; if with Mercury, he will be endowed with an excellent understanding; if with Jupiter, he will be winning on account of his steady virtues and thoroughly conversant with the truths of all the sciences; if with Venus, he will be subject to carnal appetite and will cleverly pursue quarrels and intrigues into which his lustful impulse may lead him; if with Saturn, he will be stupid; if with Rahu, he will be a great coward; and lastly if with Ketu or Mandi, he will suffer from the torpor due to heart-disease and will be outside the pale of other people.

NOTES.

These as well as slokas 38, 39 and 41 are also in जातकरत्न.

लग्ने गुरौ विक्रमनाथयुक्ते चतुष्पदानां प्रवदन्ति भीतिम् ।
गवां भयं वा जलराशिलग्ने जलप्रमादं समुपैति जातः ॥ ३८ ॥

Sloka 38. If Jupiter occupy the Lagna in conjunction with the lord of the 3rd bhava, the person born has to apprehend danger from quadrupeds or from kine chiefly. If the Lagna be a watery sign, he will be exposed to risk from water.

NOTES.

cf. sloka 44 infra.

Sloka 39. If the planet associated with Mars possess the highest strength, the person born will possess courage, strength and will enjoy the pleasure derivable from music. If the 3 planets, viz. Mars, the planet occupying the 3rd bhava and the lord thereof, be in great strength, the person concerned will be a hero in battle.

edible things, edifying speeches such as it is a pleasure and privilege of the auditory organs to hear, and happy events resulting in the accession of brothers, sisters, sons, daughters, etc.

Sloka 41. If the lord of the 3rd bhava has attained benefic vargas and is strong, the person born will be virtuous; but he will be rash if that planet be in depression or eclipsed or occupy an inimical or malefic sign and also associated with a malefic planet.

Sloka 42. If the lord of the 3rd bhava be in conjunction with the lord of the sign occupied by Rahu and if the latter be in the Lagna, danger has to be dreaded from a snake. If Mercury be in conjunction with the lord of the 3rd bhava, the person born will suffer from an ailment affecting the throat.

Sloka 43. When a malefic planet in conjunction with Mandi or some such other planet occupies the 3rd bhava, astrologers predict the disease of the throat; if Saturn possessed of abundant strength be in conjunction with Mars in the 3rd bhava, the person born, they say will be liable to the itch.

Sloka 47. When the 3rd bhava is occupied as well as aspected by a benefic planet and when the lord of that bhava is in conjunction with a benefic planet, the astrologer may declare the acquisition of an ornament for the ears.

शुक्रे तृतीये यदि मौक्तिकं तु जीवे तुलस्याभरणं वदन्ति ।
संरक्तमानीलमयं दिनेशे चन्द्रे बहुत्वाभरणं बलाढ्ये ॥ ४८ ॥

Sloka 48. When Venus is in the 3rd bhava, the ear ornament will consist of a pearl; if it be Jupiter, the ear ornament will be a Tulasi, i. e. of the form of Tulasi leaf; if it be the Sun, the ornament will be a red stone set in a ground of blue; if it be the Moon possessed of abundant strength, there will be a multiplicity of ornaments.

NOTES.

The latter half of this sloka reads thus in जातकरत्न.

भानोस्तु सम्बन्धयुते तृतीये सरक्तमानीलमयं हिमांशौ ॥

सौम्ये श्यामं कुजक्षेत्रे विचित्राभरणं वदेत् ।

Sloka 49. If Mercury occupy the 3rd bhava, the ear ornament will be dark-green; it will be variegated when the 3rd bhava is a sign owned by Mars. When the lord of the 3rd bhava in the last-mentioned case is in its own varga or exaltation, the ornament will be charming.

Sloka 50. When the lord of the 3rd bhava occupying the 10th or the 4th (?) is in a benefic sign and in conjunction with a benefic planet, the person born will get an article of attire incomparably beautiful. If a benefic planet be in the 3rd bhava, his wearing apparel will be of a superior kind. Venus and the lord of the 3rd bhava when possessed of abundant strength produce abundant clothing and decoration; when associated with or aspected by Mercury and Jupiter, they secure the advantages of listening to sweet discourses on religion and morality.

NOTES.

This as well as sloka 52 appear in जातकरत्न.

NOTES.

Sloka 60 When the Rasi representing the 4th bhava is occupied by its lord or is either aspected by or associated with a benefic planet, the person born will be amiable for his learning and humility. The same will be the case when Mercury is the strongest. If the lord of the 4th bhava occupy a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana) or be associated with or aspected by a malefic planet, the person concerned will be devoid of learning. The same will be the result when the lord of the 4th bhava is in a malefic Rasi.

Sloka 61. If the lord of the 4th bhava, Jupiter and Mercury be in the 6th, 3rd, 12th or the 8th place from the Lagna, or if they be in depression or inimical signs, the effect of the yoga will be to make the person born devoid of learning, intelligence and judgment. But if these planets be in their exaltation or स्वक्षेत्र (Swakshetra) or in a Trikona or Kendra position, the person born will be perfect in the combination of such advantages as fortune, learning and education, and will become a favourite of kings and emperors.

Sloka 62. When Venus has most power or when the Moon occupying the benefic portion of a sign in a Kendra is aspected by a benefic planet and the 4th bhava has ample strength, astrologers say the mother will have long life.

NOTES.

Regarding the longevity or otherwise of the mother, उत्तरपाराशर has the following sloka.

मातृस्थानेशचन्द्रौ स्वभवनसुहृदन्योन्यतुङ्गाधिरूढौ

Sloka 63. When the lord of the 4th bhava is in the 6th or the 12th and without strength, and when the Lagna is occupied by and aspected by a malefic planet, a shrewd astrologer may predict the loss of the mother.

NOTES.

The following sloka from जातकरत्न regarding loss of mother will be of interest:

Sloka 69 If the Moon be associated with as well as aspected by a malefic planet or if the Sun occupy a Kendra position and if the 4th bhava be either malefic or aspected by a malefic planet, the person born will be guilty of incest with the mother.

चन्द्रे भृगौ वा केन्द्रस्थे पापदृष्टेऽथवा द्वयोः ।
क्रूरे सुखे मातृगामी यदि वा गुरुदारभाक् ॥ ७० ॥

Sloka 70. When the 4th bhava is represented by a malefic Rasi and the Moon or Venus occupying a Kendra is aspected by a malefic planet, the person born will commit incest with the mother or become addicted to the wife of a venerable elder. The same effect is produced when the Moon and Venus happen to be in a malefic 4th bhava and are aspected by a malefic planet.

सुखस्थे सारषष्ठेशे चन्द्रे माताऽन्यमैथुनी ।

Sloka 71. If the Moon occupying the 4th bhava be in conjunction with Mars and the lord of the 6th bhava, the mother of the person born will have had intrigues with another. The Sun and Rahu in the 4th bhava will make the mother incontinent.

Slokas 72–73. When the Moon, in the position described in sloka 71, is associated with (1) Rahu or Ketu, the mother intrigues with a low-born person; (2) if with Saturn, the intrigue is with a Sudra; (3) if with Mercury, it is with a Vaisya (4) if with the Sun, the paramour will be a Kshatriya; (5) if with Jupiter or Venus, the lover will be a Brahmin. The Moon associated with Mars and the lord of the 6th bhava in the way described will produce the effect specified in the several cases.

Sloka 74. The Moon occupying an unfavorable position in conjunction with the lord of the 3rd bhava forces the person born to suck the breast of a woman other than his mother. If the lords of the 4th and the 9th bhavas be in a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana) and the lord of the Lagna be strong, the yoga will lead to the death of the parents.

NOTES.

This as well as slokas 79 80, 86, 88, 89 & 90 appear in जातकरत्न.

Sloka 75. When the lord of the 10th place from the पितृभाव (Pithrubhava 9th) is in a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana) and the lord of the Lagna is possessed of strength, the person born is either to become the bane of his parents or has had no सीमन्तसंस्कार (Seemantha samskara).

Sloka 78. The Sun and the Moon occupying respectively the 9th and the 4th bhavas will lead to the mother of the person concerned following the father in death. The same is the case when the bhava associated with the Sun has the presence in or the aspect on it of the lords of the 9th and the 4th bhavas.

Sloka 79. Ascertain the lord as well as the कारक (Karaka) of the 4th bhava and the planets if any associated with them, as also the planets that occupy or aspect the मातृभाव (Mathrubhava). Again find out which of these planets is malefic. During the दशापहार (Dasapahora) period of this last mentioned planet will happen, say the astrologers, the demise of the mother of the person concerned.

Sloka 80. Subtract the figures of the Moon from those of the Sun; find what Rasi the remainder represents. When Saturn and Jupiter pass through that Rasi and Navamsa or through the triangular positions corresponding thereto, the death of the mother may take place. Again, find the remainder resulting from the subtraction of यमकण्टक (Yamakantaka) from the lord of the 8th bhava from the Moon. This remainder should indicate a certain Rasi and a Navamsa thereof. When Saturn passes through the Rasi and the Sun through the Navamsa in question, the mother may pass away.

Sloka 83. If the planet in the 4th bhava be strong and occupies a benefic Rasi and if its strength be enhanced by an advantageous connection with the Lagna, then the person concerned will enjoy uninterrupted ease through the instrumentality of a people belonging to the class which the planet represents (vide Adhyaya 1–sl. 20) and will possess a wealth of the metal appertaining to the same planet (vide Adhyaya 1, sl. 24).

Sloka 84. If the lord of an untoward bhava from the Lagna, occupying its depression or inimical sign in the 4th bhava, be an enemy of the lord of the Lagna, the astrologers say that, through the dire influence of this adverse planet, the person concerned will be bereft of bodily and other comforts.

Sloka 85. If the planet in the 4th bhava, the one aspecting it, and its Karaka be all strong, they will produce much happiness to the person concerned; if those planets be in their depression or inimical signs or be eclipsed, they will produce unhappiness—the rule being that joy is occasioned by an auspicious planet and misery by the inauspicious ones.

Sloka 87. Every calculation, firstly, in respect to one's ease and comfort should be with reference to the 4th house and Jupiter; 2ndly, every thing concerning the mother should be thought of from the 4th bhava and the Moon; 3rdly, all fragrance as well as cloth, vehicle and ornaments should be guessed in reference to the 4th bhava and Venus.

Sloka 112. If the four planets (mentioned in the previous sloka) have superior strength and be connected with the Lagna in some way, all this will take place on a large scale; if they be all weak, they will produce misery. The effect will be mixed if their strength be of a mixed character. If the planets referred to above occupying a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana) be eclipsed, depressed or in an inimical house, there will be no vehicle or other such means of pleasurable locomotion; if they be in their own house and possess superior strength, there will be a long spell of enjoyment culminating in progress in a palanquin.

Sloka 1. It is from the 5th bhava that an astrologer should think about a person's tutelary deity, sovereign, son, father, intelligence and religious merit. A pilgrimage has to be guessed with reference to the 7th, the 5th, the 2nd and the 10th bhavas. Any wandering to a far-off place should be ascertained from the 12th bhava. The father's happiness may be known with reference to the 1st and the 4th bhavas and the Sun. The acquisition of children is to be determined in connection with Jupiter and the 5th bhava. The wife's accomplishments, the astrologer may predict through the 7th bhava, the lord of the 2nd and Venus.

Sloka 8. A person can have prosperity (sons, wife, etc.), according as the 5th or the 7th house calculated from the Lagna or the Moon at the time of his birth is occupied or aspected by a benefic planet or by its lord ; if otherwise, he can have no son or wife. If, when the Sun occupies Virgo identical with the rising sign, Saturn is in Pices, the latter planet will cause the death of his wife. And Mars in the 5th house in the previous yoga brings about the death of the son.

NOTES.

This sloka has been taken from बृहज्जातक (Brihat Jataka).

If the ruler of the 9th house is placed in the 5th or the 7th bhava from the Lagna, it will bring all kinds of prosperity. The same holds good for the Moon. This is one interpretation. Here शुभ (Subha) is taken to mean the 9th house.

Second interpretation. It Jupiter, the Master of Benefics (शुभानां पतिः–Subhanam patihi) is placed in the 5th or the 7th house from the Lagna or the Moon, the yoga causes also every kind of prosperity.

Third interpretation. If planets ruling the इष्टस्थानाः (Ishtasthanas, viz., places other than the 3rd, the 6th, the 8th and the 12th) be placed in the 5th and 7th houses from the Lagna or the Moon, then also prosperity is indicated.

Fourth interpretation. If the ruler of the house occupied by Venus be placed in the 5th or 7th bhava from the Lagna or the Moon, it leads to prosperity. Here शुभपति (Subhapati) is split up into शु (Su)=शुक्र (Sukra), भ (Bha)=राशि (Rasi) and पति (Pati).

Another view. It the ruler or nakshatra occupied by Venus be placed in the 5th or the 7th from the Lagna or the Moon, then also prosperity is indicated. (The rulers of Nakshatras are according to विंशोत्तरी–Vimsottari System).

In all the above interpretations, the planet or planets concerned may take the role of aspecting instead of occupying.

In the absence of the above yogas, the man is sure to be unhappy.

If Virgo is to rise with the Sun in it and Saturn be in Pisces, the native will kill many wives. If Virgo is to rise with Mars in Capricorn, such a person will lose many sons who are born.

It may however be asked "Why does Saturn in Pisces with the Sun in Virgo as Lagna kill wives?" The answer is, Saturn, as ruler of tho 6th, in the 7th and in opposition to the ruler of the 12th is bad. To be more explicit, the rulers of bad houses should not be in Subha Sthanas (शुभस्थान) or good houses.

The Sun and Saturn in opposition will indicate more than one wife especially in dual signs.

Mars in the 5th may be good for finance; but it is certainly bad for issues and will always kill children.

भौमः पञ्चमभवने जातं जातं विनाशयति पुत्रम् ।
दृष्टे गुरुणा प्रथमं सितेन न च सर्वसंदृष्टः ॥

Mars coming into the first portion of the 5th bhava will kill the first son: coming into the middle portion, he will kill the middle son, and if he comes into the last portion, he will kill the later issues. Further, Mars will always kill children between the ages of 1 and 3 years. (Cf. एक द्वौ नव विंशतिः etc., Brihat Jataka—Ch. VIII. sl. 9. According to this principle, the Moon rules for the first year and Mars rules for the next two years. Therefore children will be killed within three years by Mars.)

कल्याणवर्मन् (Kalyana Varman), the author of सारावली (Saravali), says that there are 12 kinds of sons which a person may be destined to have. They are (1) औरस (Aurasa) a son born to a lawfully married wife; (2) क्षेत्रज (Kshetraja), one that is born to a wife through a brother or other kinsman of her husband duly appointed to raise up issue for him; (3) दत्त (Datta), one that has been received as a gift from his natural parents for being adopted; (4) क्रीत (Kreeta), one that has been purchased for purposes of the continuance of the family; (5) कृत्रिम (Kritrima), a grown-up son adopted without the consent of his natural parents; (6) अधमप्रभव (Adhamaprabhava), an offspring born to a low-caste woman through a Brahmin; (7) गूढोत्पन्न (Gudhotpanna), a son born secretly of a woman when her husband is absent, the real father being unknown; (8) अपविद्ध (Apaviddha), a son that is abandoned by the father or mother, or by both, and adopted by a stranger; (9) पौनर्भव (Paunarbhava), a son of a widow remarried; (10) कानीन (Kaneena), the son of an unmarried woman; (11) सहोढ (Sahodha), the son of a woman pregnant at marriage; (12) दासीप्रभव (Dasiprabhava), the son of a female slave. The particular kind of son that one may get is thus described in Saravali.

Such of those in whose horoscopes the 5th house is occupied or aspected by benefic planets or is itself an auspicious sign (being owned by benefics), will certainly be blessed with one or other of the kinds of sons described above. If it be otherwise, there will be no issue.

If the 5th house, counted either from the Lagna or the Moon whichever is stronger, happen to be a Varga of Jupiter and should also be a benefic sign or be aspected by benefic planets, the person concerned wlll have an औरस (Aurasa) son.

The number of sons that a person may have is that signified by the number of benefic Navamsas that have elapsed in the 5th bhava. This number will be doubled if the bhava be also aspected by benefics. The number lost will be ascertained through the number of malefic Navamsas traversed, and the number will be doubled if the bhava be also aspected by malefics. Also Cf. XIII—46, 47, infra.

If the 5th house belong to a Varga of Saturn and be aspected by Mercury but not by Jupiter, Mars or the Sun, the person concerned will have a क्षेत्रज (Kshetraja) son. The same will be the case if the house in question belong to a Varga of Mercury, be aspected by Saturn and be at the same time devoid of the aspect of Jupiter, Mars or the Sun.

If Saturn should own the 5th house and also occupy it and if the Moon should aspect the said house, the person concerned will get a दत्तक (Dattaka) son. If Mercury should take the role of Saturn in the above yoga the native will get a क्रीत (Kreeta) son.

If the 5th house with Saturn in it be in the Saptamsa of Mars and be not be aspected by any of the remaining planets, the person concerned will get a कृत्रिम (Kritrima) son.

If the 5th house be in a Varga of Saturn or be occupied by the Sun, with the aspect of Mars on it, the son of the person concerned will be an अधमप्रभव (Ādhamaprabhava).

If the Moon should occupy in the 5th house an amsa of Mars and be aspected by Saturn and not by any of the other planets, the son of the person concerned will be a गूढोत्पन्नं (Gudhotpanna).

If Mars occupy the 5th house identical with the Varga of Saturn and be aspected by the Sun, the person concerned will get a son of the अपविद्ध (Apaviddha) class ; so declares sage Karuṇa.

The son of a person will be पौनर्भव (Pounarbhava) when, in his nativity, the Moon is in the 5th house in a Varga of Saturn and in conjunction with that planet, and is also aspected by Venus and the Sun.

If the 5th bhava be in the Shodasamsa of the Sun and be occupied or aspected by him, the son of the person concerned will be a कनीन (Kaneena).

If the 5th house belong to a Varga of the Sun or the Moon and be occupied by the Moon or the Sun respectively and if the bhava be at the same time aspected by Venus, the native will have a son of the सहोढ (Sahodha) class.

If the 5th house being a malefic sign be occupied by three or more malefics in strength and has no benefic aspect on it, the person concerned will not have any son.

If the 5th bhava happens to be in the Navamsa of Venus and has the aspect of that planet on it, the issues will be of the दासी-प्रभव (Dasiprabhava) class. Some say that the same should be predicted through the Moon also; i.e., when the 5th bhava is in the Navamsa of the Moon and is also aspected by that planet.

If the 5th bhava being in a Varga of Venus or the Moon be at the same time aspected or occupied by these planets, the issues will generally be daughters. The same will be the case if the sign representing the Varga in question be even. Otherwise, the issues will be all sons.

Sloka 9. When the lord of the 5th bhava or of the 9th from the Lagna occupies the 7th bhava or an even Rasi and is aspected by or in conjunction with the Moon or Venus, a good number of daughters would be born. If the two planets referred to above occupy a male varga and be aspected by or in conjunction with male planets, the number of children born will contain a majority of sons. The question of obtaining issues, an astrologer must propound, with referencc to Jupiter and the 5th bhava.

Balabhadra takes जीवात्पञ्चमराशेः occurring in the last पाद of the sloka to mean "from the 5th place reckoned from Jupiter" and quotes the following :

Malefic planets in the 8th, the 6th and the 12th places from the 5th bhava bring the family to extinction. Rahu occupying the 5th bhava and the lord thereof in a दुःस्थान (Dusthhana) will cause the death of children. If the lord of the Lagna be in the 5th and the lord of the latter in the 1st bhava, the person concerned will adopt a son.

Find the vargas of the planet occupying the Rasi representing the 5th bhava and also those of the Karaka of the same. The number of issues should be determined by a consideration of (1) the planets in the 5th house or those that are posited along with the lord of the 5th house, as to how many of them are in friendly, depression or inimical Navamsas. A similar examination should also be made in respect of the 5th house or its lord reckoned from the sign occupied by Jupiter or the sign representing the Navamsa occupied by the Sun-

Sloka 47. Leaving out the figures indicating the number of signs in the bhavas to be mentioned below, multiply the degrees, minutes, etc. in each, converted into minutes, by the figure (in Virupas) representing the benefic aspect and divide the products by 60 and again by 200. The results arrived at in respect to the 5th, the 3rd, the 7th, the 1st and the 4th bhavas respectively represent the number of sons, brothers, wives, menials whether male or female, and friends that the owner of the horoscope is to have. The figures got similarly from malefic aspect on the several bhavas above-mentioned indicate the number of sons and others that will be lost.

Sloka 48. Add the correct figures for the lords of the 5th and the 1st bhavas, and find out the Rasi and the amsa the sum represents. When Jupiter passes through this and its triangular positions, there is a possibility of a son being born. Again, take the sum of the figures for Jupiter, the Moon and the Sun, and ascertain the Rasi and the Navamsas the sum represents. The number of the Navamsas obtained give the number of issues of the person concerned. Two more alternative methods for ascertaining this number are: (1) add the figures of the lords of the 5th, the 9th and the 4th bhavas and ascertain, as in the above case, the number of past Navamsas in the Rasi found. This will be the number required: (2) add the figures of the planets if any in the 5th, the 9th and the 4th bhavas. The number of children will be the number of elapsed Navamsas in the Rasi found.

NOTES.

The following from फलदीपिका gives a clue to ascertain when conception may be possible:

बलयुक्तौ स्वगृहांशेष्वर्कसितावपचयर्क्षगौ पुंसाम् ।
स्त्रीणां वा कुजचन्द्रौ यदा तदा संभवति गर्भः ॥

Conception (of a birth) may take place when, the Sun and Venus in the case of males, Mars and the Moon in the case of females, being possessed of strength pass through their Rasis or Navamsas identical with an अपचय (Apachaya) place.

जीवाच्चन्द्रमसो विलग्नभवनात् पुत्रप्रदं पञ्चमं

पुत्रस्थानपकामपस्फुटयुते यत्तारका तद्दशा
तत्खेटान्वितवीक्षकग्रहदशाभुक्तिश्च पुत्रप्रदा ॥ ४९ ॥

Sloka 49. The 5th and the 9th bhavas from Jupiter, the Moon and the Lagna are child-producing. During the dasa and bhukti of the lord of a child-producing bhava, the astrologer may predict the accession of a child. Add the figures for the lords of the 5th and the 7th bhavas, and ascertain the star indicated by the total. Its dasa yields a son. The dasa as well as its bhukti of a planet which either aspects or is in conjunction with the lord of the 5th or the 7th bhava will prove to be child-producing.

NOTES.

This as well as the next one are in जातकरत्न.

The following additional information from फलदीपिका about (Putrabhava) पुत्रभाव will be found to be interesting :

जीवेन्दुक्षितिजस्फुटैक्यभवने युग्मे च युग्मांशके
स्त्रीणां क्षेत्रबलं वदन्ति सुतदं मिश्रे प्रयासात्फलम् ।
भास्वच्छुक्रगुरुस्फुटैक्यभवनेऽप्योजांशकेऽप्योजभे
पुंसां बीजबलं सुतप्रदमिदं मिश्रे तु मिश्रं वदेत् ॥

Add together the figures representing the positions of Jupiter, the Moon and Mars in the case of female horoscopes. If the result denotes an even Rasi and an even Navamsa, the strength of fecundity in the female for producing offspring is assured. If it is mixed (i.e., Rasi male and Amsa female, or vice versa), there will be children only after a great effort. If the sum total of the figures denoting the positions of the Sun, Venus and Jupiter signify an odd Rasi and an odd Navamsa, it denotes that the virility in the male to produce offspring is very strong ; and in case one of the two (Rasi and Navamsa) be even, one has to predict a mixed result.

पञ्चघ्नाच्छशिनः स्फुटादिषुहतं भानुस्फुटं शोधये-
न्नीत्वा तत्र तिथिं सिते शुभतिथौ पुत्रोऽस्त्ययत्नादपि ।

दर्शे छिद्रतिथौ च विष्टिकरणे न स्यात् स्थिराख्ये सुतः ॥

Subtract five times the figures for the Sun from five times the figures for the Moon. If the Tithi represented by the result be an auspicious one in the bright half of a month, progeny is assured to the native (even) without much exertion. But if it be one of the dark half of the month there is no such possibility. It is by a close examination of the strength of the Tithi—whether it is auspicious or otherwise—in both the Pakshas—bright and dark—that one has to divine the possibility of the native being blessed with issues. During an Amavasya, a *छिद्र (chhidra) tithi, the विष्टि (Vishti) Karana or any one of the स्थिर Karanas, there will be no issue at all.

*Chhidra Tithis are (1) चतुर्थी (Chaturthi), (2) षष्ठी (Shashti), (3) अष्टमी (Ashtami), (4) नवमी (Navami), (5) द्वादशी (Dwadasi), and (6) चतुर्दशी (Chaturdasi). These six ane generally avoided for any auspicious function.

There are 11 Karanas distributed over the 30 Tithis of the Lunar month at the rate of 2 Karanas for each Tithi. Four of these viz., (1) Chatushpattha, (2) Nagava, (3) Kimsthughna and (4) Sakuna are called (Stthira) Karanas and are so named as they permanently hold sway over the four half Tithis commencing from the 2nd half of Krishnapaksha Chaturdasi. The other seven viz., (1) Bava, (2) Balava, (3) Kaulava, (4) Taitula, (5) Garaja, (6) Vanija and (7) Vishti or Bhadra are called Chara or moveable Karanas and occur in 8 cycles to preside over the remaining 56 half Tithis of the lunar month beginning with the latter half of Suklapaksha Prathama.

Should however the result happen to be one of the chhidra (छिद्र) Tithis, the विष्टि (Vishti) Karana or a स्थिर (Stthira) Karana alluded to in the previous sloka), one ought to worship God Krishna by means of the Purusha Sukta mantras to ward off the barrenness threatening the family. If the Tithi disclosed be Shashti, he ought to worship God Subrahmanya; if it be Chaturthi, he ought to propitiate the lord of serpents: if it be Navami, he ought to arrange for the reading of Ramayana and hear that story; if it be Ashtami, he ought to observe the Sravana Vrata (by fasting); if it be Chaturdasi, he must worship God Siva by Rudraparayana; if it be Dwadasi, he must propitiate the Gods by liberal feeding; if it be Amavasya or Pournami, he ought to propitiate the Manes. These things he ought to do all the more and with greater care and effort when the Tithi happens to be one among the last five of the month—viz. after कृष्णपक्षदशमी. Generally, in the dark half of a month to whichsoever of the three divisions a Tithi may belong, worship ought to be resorted to; the particular deity to be propitiated being Nagaraja in the first division (viz-1—5 Tithis), Skanda in the second (next 5 Tithis i.e. 6—10) and Hari in the third (or last 5).

He ought to divine the source of the same by an examination of the particular deity, tree and animal represented by the sign occupied by that planet.

If the planet in question happens to be the Sun, the person concerned becomes sonless owing to injury done to God Siva and Garuda, and the consequent curse of the Manes; If the Moon, it will be due to the displeasure and anger of the mother, a Sumangali or other venerable woman or Goddess Bhagavati owing to her feelings having been hurt; In the case of Mars, it will be due to some fault done to the village deity, to God Kartikeya, to an enemy, or one's dayadins; if the planet be Mercury, the sonlessness will be due to curses made by youngsters or to the killing of the spawns (eggs of fishes and similar creatures) or to the wrath f God Vishnu; If Jupiter be such planet, it will be due to some harm done to the hereditary Brahmin family-priest or the destruction (cutting asunder) of a tree full of fruits; if the lord of the 5th or the planet posited therein be Venus, the cause of childlessness will be due to the cutting off of a tree full of flowers, or an injury caused to a virtuous lady or to the cow-kind or a sinful deed to people that ought to be revered; if Saturn be the planet under advertance, it will be due to the destruction of an अश्वत्थ (Aswattha) tree or on account of Yama's ire or through departed Spirits, Goblins and the like; if Rahu should occupy the 5th house or be associated with the lord of that house, it will be due to the curse of a serpent; in the case of Ketu, it will be owing to the curse of a Brahmin. If it be Mandi, it will be due to a curse from departed Spirits. If Venus and the Moon in conjunction with Mandi should be in such a position, the cause will be attributed to the murder of a damsel or the killing of a cow. If Jupiter or Ketu in conjunction with Mandi be in the 5th house, the son-lessness will be on account of the murder of a Brahmin.

Thus have been detailed the several sins accrued by one's actions in his many previous births and now revealed in his present nativity which lead to childlessness and to ward off which and to secure a son persons versed in the Astrological science have recommended (appropriate) particular Japas, gifts and such other good actions prescribed for the several planets.

Sloka 50. If the lord of the 5th bhava, its Karaka, the planet aspecting that bhava, and the one occupying it, own a दुःस्थान (Dustthana) or be weak or be posited in a दुःस्थान (Dustthana), the astrologer may predict the loss of a son during the dasa or bhukti of any one of those planets. But if these four planets be strong and benefic, in their dasa, bhukti and antara, they lead to the acquisition of children, their prosperity and the favor of men in power.

NOTES.

It is not clear whether by the word पितृस्थान, the 5th or the 9th bhava is meant. Parasara says "पितापि चिन्त्यो नवमे सुतर्क्षे" The opening sloka of the present Adhyaya gives पितृ as चिन्त्य or ascertainable from the 5th bhava. I accordingly interpret पितृस्थान as the 5th bhava here being germane to the Adhyaya bearing on the 5th bhava. The slokas 52-57 occur in सर्वार्थचिन्तामणि under the 9th bhava. So पितृस्थान must mean the 5th as well as the 9th bhava.

Sloka 53. When the lord of the 5th bhava has attained a Paravathamsa or other higher Vaiseshikamsa and the Karaka of the bhava occupies a similar position or be in its own, exaltation or friendly amsas, the astrologer may announce long life to the father.

क्रूरनीचांशकस्थे वा भावनाथे च कारके ।

Sloka 54. When the lord of the 5th bhava and its Karaka is in a malefic or depression amsa and is in conjunction with Saturn, Mandi or Rahu, the astrologer may announce the father's unhappiness.

सौम्ये तदीश्वरे वाऽपि नीचमूढारिराशिगे ।
क्रूरषष्ठ्यंशके वाऽपि पितृदुःखं विनिर्दिशेत् ॥ ५५ ॥

Sloka 55. If the lord of 5th bhava, even when benefic, be in depression, eclipsed or in an inimical sign, or in a malefic Shashtyamsa, the astrologer may pronounce the father's unhappiness.

पितृकर्मगृहे जातः पितृतुल्यगुणान्वितः ।
पितृजन्मतृतीयर्क्षे जातः पितृवशानुगः ॥ ५६ ॥

Sloka 56. A person will have the characteristics of the father when born in a Lagna corresponding to the 10th bhava of his father. He will be dutiful to his father when his rising sign corresponds to the 3rd bhava in the father's horoscope.

पितृषष्ठाष्टमे जातः पितृशत्रुर्भविष्यति ।
तद्भावपे विलग्नस्थे पितृश्रेष्ठो भवेत् सुतः ॥ ५७ ॥

Sloka 57. When the rising sign corresponds to the 6th or the 8th bhava in the father's horoscope, the person concerned will be at variance with the father. But if the lord of the 6th or the 8th bhava in the father's horoscope occupy the Lagna in that of the son, the latter will be superior to his father.

Sloka 58. Saturn, Mars and Rahu in the 11th or the 9th bhava from the Lagna occasion the father's death; Saturn and Mars in the 8th or the 7th bhava bring about the death of the child. Mars, the Sun, Saturn and the Moon in the 10th or the 5th bhava bring about forthwith the death of the maternal uncle, the father, the child and the mother respectively.

This sloka appears in जातकरत्न.

I should think that the three planets viz., Saturn, Mars and Rahu should all be posited in one or other of the two bhavas or in both to bring about the effect. Two alone will not be able to produce the fateful effect. Similar remark applies to the yoga given in the 2nd पाद of the sloka.

Sloka 59. If the lord of the 5th bhava be strong, and the lords of the 1st and the 4th bhavas and the Moon be weak, the mother of the person born will die at the next conception.

नवमादष्टमाधीशो नवमात् खरपोऽथवा ।
शनिर्वेधेषु यः क्रूरः संभवेत् पितृमृत्युदः ॥ ६० ॥

Sloka 60. When Saturn being the lord of the 8th bhava or खर (Khara), both reckoned from the 9th bhava, happens to be malefic in वेध (Vedha) positions, the planet will cause the death of the father.

NOTES.

A knowledge of गोचरफल (Gocharaphala—effect of transits) is a condition precedent to the understanding of the term वेध (Vedha) used in the sloka.

It is a well-known theory that the movements of planets in the zodiac from moment to moment signify good or evil. This is the basis on which the Transit System rests. As the physical and mental qualities and the chief events in the life and career of the native could be foretold by a reference to the position of the planets and the Lagna at the time of birth, similarly, any changes in the prospects and conditions of life of the individual at any required time may be ascertained by a reference to the person's Janma Rasi (जन्मराशि) and the configuration of planets at that time. Thus it is said that when the Sun during his transit comes through the 3rd, the 6th, the 10th and the 11th houses reckoned from the house occupied by the Moon at birth, success, ruin of enemies, gains of labour and pecuniary gains respectively are the results to be predicted. But there is one thing to be noted in this connection. These results will happen only if the corresponding वेध (Vedha) sign in each case is left unoccupied by any planet at the time of consideration. If there should be a planet in the Vedha position, he tries to nullify the original effect that would otherwise result, may, even bring about a quite contrary effect should be happen to be strong at that time.

What these वेध (Vedha) positions are, will be clear from the following slokas from कालप्रकाशिका

1 2 9 3 6 12 7 8 10 4 5 11
रविः पुरो धां गीतारव्यसदानवशायुग्गतैः ।

कुजवत्पादरविजौ न वेधः पितृपुत्रयोः ॥

For the benefit of the readers, the वेध (Vedha) positions have been indicated in the table subjoined :

Vedah वेध signs reckoned from the house of the Moon.

Planets	I	II	III	IV	V	VI	VII	VIII	IX	X	XI	XII
Sun	1	2	9	3	6	12	7	8	10	4	5	11
Moon	5	1	9	3	6	12	2	7	10	4	8	11
Mars	1	2	12	3	4	9	6	7	8	10	5	11
Mercury	2	5	4	3	7	9	6	1	8	10	12	11
Jupiter	1	12	2	5	4	6	3	7	10	9	8	11
Venus	8	7	1	10	9	12	2	5	11	4	3	6

There is no वेध (Vedha) between the father and the son. Consequently, (1) the Moon and Mercury, (2) the Sun and Saturn do not affect each other through Vedha.

Take for example the nativity referred to in p. 657. The Moon at birth is in Meena. Suppose it is required to find out if the Sun's transit through Makara in January—February 1933 will prove propitious. Makara happening to be the 11th from Meena (the Janma Rasi), the Vedha sign for the Sun is the 5th from Meena, that is, Kataka. This is not occupied by any planet. So the good effects, viz., pecuniary gain, due to the Sun's transit thro' Makara the 11th house from the Moon will happen in their entirety. Similar is the case with the other planets.

दिनेशस्थितराश्यंशप्राणितः कोणगे रवौ ।
पितृमृत्युर्मातृमृत्युरिन्दुस्थांशर्क्षयोर्बलात् ॥ ६१ ॥

Sloka. 61. Examine the strength of the Rasi as well as the amsa occupied by the Sun. Find the stronger of these two. When the Sun occupies a Kona position from thence, the father's death may be expected. By a similar process ascertain whether the Rasi or the amsa occupied by the Moon is stronger. The mother's death may be predicted with reference thereto, i. e. when the Sun passes through the Kona of the amsa or Rasi that is stronger.

भानुस्थितांशपारूढनवांशद्वादशांशभम् ।
गते चन्द्रे भवेन्मृत्युर्मातापित्रोर्यथाक्रमम् ॥ ६२ ॥

Sloka. 62. Find the lord of the Navamsa occupied by the Sun. Find next the Navamsa and Dwadasamsa occupied by the planet found. When the Moon passes through the Navamsa and Dwadasamsa found, the deaths respectively of the mother and father will take place.

दुष्टस्थानगते भानौ सिंहान्त्यद्वादशांशके ।
जातश्चेज्जननात्पूर्वं पितृमृत्युं प्रयच्छति ॥ ६३ ॥

Sloka. 63. If, when the Sun occupies a दुःस्थान, a person has his birth in the Dwadasamsa of Simha or Meena he must have caused the death of his father prior to coming into the world.

NOTES.

For the same effect the following is another yoga quoted in जातकरत्न.

क्षीणे शशाङ्के तनुभावयुक्ते मूढान्विते मन्दगृहे सुरेड्ये ।
त्रिकोणगे पापखगैश्च सर्वैः प्रागेव पुत्रस्य मुखाद्विनाशः ॥

मार्तण्डे गुलिकस्फुटादपहृते राशित्रिकोणे शनौ

आदित्ये यमकण्टकस्फुटयुते तद्राशिकोणे गुरौ
रोगं तद्भवनांशकेऽमरगुरौ तातस्य नाशं वदेत् ॥ ६४ ॥

Sloka. 64. Subtract the figures for the Sun from those for Mandi. The result will indicate a certain Rasi and amsa. When Saturn passes through the Kona of the Rasi found, the father of the person concerned will fall ill ; death will supervene when Jupiter passes through the amsa found already. Add the figures for Yamakantaka to those for the Sun. The result will give a certain Rasi and a Navamsa. When Jupiter passes through that Rasi or its Trikona, the father of the person concerned will fall ill ; and he will die when Jupiter passes through the amsa found.

NOTES.

This sloka appears in जातकरत्न. The 3rd पाद there reads thus :

आदित्ये यमकण्टकस्फुटहृते राशित्रिकोणे शनौ ॥

केन्द्रे चरेऽर्के चन्द्रे वा पितरौ न दहेत् सुतः ।
केन्द्रे द्विदेहगौ तौ चेत् मृत्युदाहौ द्विकालगौ ॥ ६५ ॥

Sloka. 65. When the Sun or the Moon occupies a Kendra in a moveable sign, the son will not burn the father's or mother's corpse himself. If the Sun or the Moon occupying a Kendra be in a dual sign, the death and burning will not be in the same period of time.

Sloka. 66. If the lords of the 9th and the 4th bhavas be in the invisible part of the zodiac, it will not be the good fortune of the person concerned to see the face of his parents in their last movements. If the lord of the 5th bhava be in the invisible portion of the hemisphere, the person concerned will not see his son's face at the moment of his death.

Sloka. 67. If the lord of the 5th bhava occupy a दुःस्थान or be in the invisible portion of the hemisphere, the person born will have a rather dull understanding. But if the planet in question be associated with Mercury or Jupiter in a Kendra or Kona position and have strength, the person born will be intelligent and capable of shrewdly guessing the thoughts of others (by their gestures and other expressive signs).

Sloka. 68. हृद्रोगी पञ्चमे पापे सपापे च रसातले ।
क्रूरषष्ठ्यंशसंयुक्ते शुभदृग्योगवर्जिते ॥ ६९ ॥

Sloka. 69. When malefic planets occupy the 5th and the 4th bhavas and when the former bhava is in a malefic Shashtyamsa without being aspected by or in conjunction with benefic planets, the person born will suffer from heart-desease.

अन्नदानपरो नित्यं पञ्चमेशे शुभांशके ।
शुभखेचरसंयुक्ते भूमिजे केन्द्रमाश्रिते ॥ ७० ॥

Sloka. 70. When the lord of the 5th bhava is in a benefic amsa and Mars occupying a Kendra is in conjunction with benefic planets, the person born will ever devote himself to the duties of hospitality and the relief of the hungry and the famished.

Sloka 71. An astrologer ought to divine diseases, enemies, bad habits and hurts that a person may have, from the 6th bhava and Mars. What relates to diseases has been treated already (Vide Adhyayas V. & VI). When Jupiter is in the 6th bhava, the person concerned will overcome his enemies. If the lord of the 6th bhava and Mercury be in conjunction with Rahu and connected in some way with the lord of the Lagna, the person concerned will be impotent. Mars occupying the 6th bhava together with lord of the Lagna will produce damage to the organ of generation by an ulcer.

If Mars occupying the 6th bhava be aspected by Saturn, he will have a liaison with an enemy's wife. If the 6th bhava be either aspected or occupied by benefic planets, there is no danger to be dreaded from enemies ; if aspected or occupied by malefic ones, there will be a good deal of hurt or other damage inflicted by an enemy, danger from ulcers or some mark of ignominy put upon the person concerned.

Sloka 73. If the Sun occupying the 6th bhava identical with the planet's depression or unfriendly sign, be inimical to the lord of the Lagna and have no strength, the person born will have to associate with the enemies of his father's party. But when the Sun in the 6th bhava is friendly to the lord of the Lagna and in a friendly sign and has attained its own, exaltation or friendly varga, the person concerned, say the sages, will be distinguished among his relatives for being unhurt by enemies.

Sloka 74. If the planet in the 6th bhava or the owner thereof be in an inimical or its depression sign, retrograde or eclipsed, the person born will have many kinsmen by the father's side; and his body will be covered with many sores. If any one of the planets from the Sun onwards occupy the 6th bhava, the person will be annoyed continually by the foe of the class of people represented by the bhava of which the planet occupying the 6th bhava is the Karaka.

Sloka 75. If the lord of the 6th bhava from the Lagna, the planet occupying the same and the one aspecting it—if these three planets be malefic and weak, they produce the destruction of cattle, disease and danger from enemies. If these planets be strong and benefic, then the effect will be wealth of cattle, horses and other beasts of burden, royal food with condiments of every sort and the disappearanee of ailments and enemies.

Sloka 76. If two out of the three planets mentioned in the preceding sloka be exceedingly benefic and occupy a Kendra, Trikona or the 11th bhava in great strength, they will quickly cause the disappearance of disease, etc., spoken of before. If even one among them be very strong, the trouble from ulcers, enemies, etc. will operate only to a small extent; and all that was said about the evils besetting the bhavas of which the planets under consideration are the Karakas will be belied or replaced by happiness.

Sloka 78. If Venus be similarly situated, the consequence will be sore-eyes. Saturn as well as Rahu in the position above described produce flatulence, and Ketu, disease of the stomach. Sloka 1. It is from the 7th bhava that an astrologer can divine all about any journey a person may undertake, his sons, his wives and his enjoyment. What has been said in regard to son's worldly comfort or misery as the effect accruing from the preceding bhavas may also be predicted from this bhava. When Venus is in the 7th bhava or the lord thereof is in conjunction with Rahu or Ketu, the person born will become an adulterer. But this effect does not follow when the 7th bhava is a benefic sign and is also occupied or aspected by Jupiter.

Sloka 2. If the lord of the 7th bhava occupying a दुःस्थान (Dustthana) be in a malefic house and aspected by or associated with a malefic planet, the effect of the 7th bhava would be but mediocre. If these conditions be reversed, the effect of the bhava would be wholly auspicious. If the lord of the 7th bhava be in conjunction with Venus and occupy a malefic sign, the person born will be lustfully inclined; if it be in a benefic sign and associated with or aspected by a benefic planet, the person concerned will get a white umbrella which is the emblem of royalty.

It is through the (number of) planets in the 7th house that one ought to divine the number of women that a person may associate with. Of these, the number that will die (at an early age) will correspond to the number (of planets in the 7th house) that are malefic, while the number of benefics will denote the number that will survive. If the lord of the 7th be benefic and possessed of strength, the native will have a good-natured woman as his partner and be endowed with good children. Even a malefic will do good to the wife if he shall be in the 7th owning that house. Benefics in the 7th will be productive of good unless they happen to be the lords of the 6th, 8th and 12th houses.

Sloka 27. Add together the figures for the lords of the Lagna and the 7th bhava. Find the Rasi, etc., indicated by the result. When Jupiter traverses the Rasi, etc., above found, the astrologer may predict a person's marriage. The time of marriage may also be determined in the same way in respect to the total of the figures for the ruler of the stars occupied by the Moon and the lord of the 7th bhava. If the Navamsa occupied by Jupiter belong to a friend, the person concerned will have but one wife. If the amsa in question be Jupiter's own, the number of wives will be 2 or 3. If the amsa be that of Jupiter's exaltation, the person concerned will be the lord of many wives.

NOTES.

According to फलदीपिका the probable time for marriage is thus ascertained:

शुक्रोऽस्तपो वा तनुनाथभांशकत्रिकोणमायाति तदा विवाहः ॥

The marriage may be expected to come off when Venus or the lord of the 7th house in its orbit transits through a sign which is triangular to the Rasi or Navamsa owned by the lord of the Lagna.

During the dasa period of that planet, the marriage of the person may take place, when Jupiter traverses the Trikona of the Rasi and amsa occupied by the lord of the 7th bhava. Again, find the stronger of the two planets Venus and the Moon. During the dasa period of the stronger planet, the period favourable to marriage may be found in the same manner as in the above case.

Sloka 29. If the lord of the 7th bhava be associated with Venus, its Dasa and Bhukti may lead to marriage. Failing that, the Dasa and Bhukti of the lord of the Rasi occupied by the planet owning the 2nd bhava may have marriage-producing efficacy. The Dasa and Bhukti of the lords of the 10th and the 9th bhavas come next in order. Lastly, note the planet associated with the lord of the 7th bhava or the one occupying it. During the Dasa and Bhukti of one of these, marriage may take place.

NOTES.

It is, perhaps, implied here that each succeeding alternative is to be resorted to when the preceding one is found to be not promising because of the weakness, etc., of the planet concerned.

Sloka 30. If the planet powerful for producing marriage be benefic and in a benefic house, it will bring on the happy event at the commencement of its Dasa. If the planet, being itself benefic, should occupy a malefic house, the marriage and other such happy events will take place in the middle of its Dasa. If the planet and the house it occupies be both malefic, the event in question will happen at the end of its Dasa. But if the planet in question occupy a benefic house and be in conjunction with a benefic planet at the same time, its influence for good will prevail during the whole of its Dasa period.

The same event may also happen when Jupiter reaches a sign occupied by Add the figures for the lords of the 7th and the 1st bhavas and find out the Rasi and amsa indicated by the sum total. The girl born in the Rasi and amsa thus found is the one to win the heart of the person concerned. The husband-elect must equally prove acceptable to the wife.

Sloka 33. Note the planets occupying or aspecting the 7th bhava from the Moon. A girl born in a sign belonging to any one of these planets will be highly fortunate as a wife and enjoy her husband's favor. A husband determined similarly in the case of a female horoscope will prove acceptable. The direction of the country of the bride will be that of the lord of the 7th bhava from Venus.

NOTES.

According to Mantreswara, the direction of the country of the wife will be that signified by the Rasi owned by any one of the three planets, viz., (1) occupying the 7th house (2) owning the 7th house and (3) Venus. Cf.

Great astrologers have recognised the Rasi occupied by the lord of the 7th bhava in the husband's horoscope as the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of his wife. The exaltation and the depression signs of the lord of the 7th bhava in the male horoscope as well as the Rasi of the 7th bhava form the constituent parts of the triad representing the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of the कलत्र (Kalatra) or wife.

If the 7th bhava be occupied by Mandi, Saturn, Rahu or Ketu she will have fat pendent breasts. If Dhuma and other invisible planets be in the 7th bhava or if the lord thereof occupy a दुःस्थान (Dustthana), her breasts will be ill-shapen.

Subtract the figures for the Lagna from those for the lord of the 7th bhava. The difference indicates a certain Rasi. When Jupiter occupies this Rasi or its Trikona, astrologers say that the death of the person's wife will take place. The same event may happen when Jupiter is in a Rasi indicated by the excess of the figures for the Lagna over those for the lord of the 7th bhava.

Sloka 48. From what has been said already, it is possible to ascertain the allotted period of a person's life as affected by the untoward events due to the positions of the lords of the 1st, the 10th and the 8th bhavas and of the planet Saturn; but as it crops up again in connection with निधन (Nidhana) or the 8th bhava now under treatment, it is to be dealt with once more. If the lord of the 8th bhava being associated with a malefic planet occupy the 12th or the 6th bhava, the person concerned will be short-lived. The same effect is produced when the lord of the 8th bhava being weak happens to be associated with the lord of the Lagna in one of the two bhavas above-named (viz. the 6th or the 12th).

NOTES.

For things to be deduced from the 8th bhava, vide the following from (1) जातकरत्न.

Sloka 49. When the lord of the 8th bhava occupies its own house, the person born will be long-lived. If the lords of the 1st and the 8th bhavas occupy the 6th or the 12th bhava, then too will the person born enjoy prolonged vital energy. The lords of the 10th, the 1st and the 8th bhavas in a Kendra, a Trikona or the 11th bhava lead to long life. But if they be weak and in conjunction with Saturn, the astrologer may declare life to be short.

Sloka 50. If the lords of the 10th, the 8th and the 1st bhavas be all of them strong and unassociated with Saturn, the person born will be long-lived. If even two of them be strong, the person concerned will have medium life. If only one of them be strong, his life will be shorter than in the preceding case. But if the planet owning the 8th bhava be associoted with or aspected by a benefic one or occupy a benefic sign or the 8th bhava itself, the life of the person born will be long.

But if the lord of the 8th place from the Lagna be in its exaltation or in conjunction with a benefic planet or in a Kendra or a Trikona or in the 8th bhava itself, the person born will be blessed with long life. Sloka 53. If the lord of the 12th bhava from the Lagna occupy a स्वक्षेत्र (Swakshetra) and be strong, the person born will live long in comfort. The same effect follows when the lords of the 1st and the 8th bhavas are strong and occupy a Kendra. If Venus, Mercury or Jupiter occupy or aspect the Moon's place or the 10th from the sign of conception or birth or from the 8th bhava, the person concerned will enjoy health and long life.

(If there be no planet so associated) the dasa of the planet owning the Rasi occupied by the lord of the Lagna or the 8th bhava will prove fateful. If the Lagna be occupied by its lord, the dasa and bhukti of the latter will bring on bodily suffering; but the person concerned will survive in each case, regain health and be happy. If the lords of the Lagna and the 8th bhavas occupy a Kendra or Trikona in conjunction with another planet, the person will surely have his demise during the dasa of the planet if any occupying the 8th bhava.

The event will happen during the dasa of the last-mentioned planet when Saturn arrives in its progress through the orbit at the Lagna or the 8th bhava. If the lords of the 1st and the 8th bhavas be in conjunction with other planets, then find out which of the associated planets is weak ; and it is during the dasa and bhukti of this weak planet that the astrologer should declare as probable the death of the person concerned.

But if such lord of the 5th bhava is not associated with any other planet, then the aggregate number of years according to उडुदशा (Udu dasa) of the lord of the 5th bhava should be divided by 12 and the remainder should indicate the zodiacal sign occupied by the Sun at the time of the person's demise. Again, add together the उडुदशा (Udu dasa) periods of the lord of the Lagna and the lord of the 5th bhava or the planet associated with the lord of the 5th bhava as the case may be and divide the sum by 30. The result will indicate the day of the person's demise counted from the Sankrama day of the month.

Sloka 62. If the lords of the 9th, 1st and 4th bhavas should occupy a Kendra or Trikona, the sages say the mother of the person born will follow the father in death during the dasa and bhukti of one of these planets (which one of them? should be determined from other sources). If the Moon in the 8th bhava be associated with Mars, Saturn or Rahu, the person concerned will become liable to epilepsy, and death will result from that disease. The same consequences follow if the Moon on the wane be associated with the above mentioned planets.

Sloka 66. If the planets occupying the 9th bhava be malefic, hostile, depressed or eclipsed, the persons born in the yoga will be void of good name, wealth or moral worth. Sloka 67. The 9th bhava occupied or aspected by a benefic planet or its own lord secures happiness to

The lord of the 5th place from the 9th bhava is its awakener. If these planets be in exaltation or in their own signs, they produce long-lasting happiness.

Four such planets similarly placed in the 9th bhava and possessing strength are capable of yielding good fortune to the person concerned. This good fortune, they give in the country of one's birth if they occupy a position of exaltation, swakshetra or an amsa belonging to either of these two. If they be in any other amsa, the good fortune will crop up to the person concerned in a foreign country.

Sloka 2. If the lord of the 10th bhava have no strength, the person born will be fickle-minded and ill-behaved; Jupiter, Mercury, Saturn and the Sun if badly placed lead the person concerned to vicious acts. When Rahu or the Sun occupies the 10th bhava, the person born will get the benefit of bathing in the Ganges. When Meena forms the 10th bhava and is occupied by Mercury and Mars, the person born will attain final emancipation.

Sloka 3. When the lord of the 10th bhava occupies a Kendra in conjunction with Venus, or is in exaltation, the person born will purify himself by ablutions in the water of the Ganges. When Mercury occupies the 12th bhava or the lord of the last-mentioned bhava is in swakshetra or exaltation, the merit of such ablutions will accrue to the person concerned.

Sloka 4. When the Moon with clear rays occupies the 10th bhava the person born will be purified by the ablutions in the Ganges water. The Moon when malefic in the same bhava leads the person concerned to gambling and acts of violence. Benefic planets when weak in the 10th bhava destroy the beneficent deeds which the person may be inclined to do. The benefit of any sacrifice which may accrue to a person should be ascertained by means of the lord of the 10th bhava, Mercury and Jupiter, and then announced.

Sloka 5. If the lords of the 10th and the 1st bhavas be in one place or if these two bhavas have one and the same lord, the person born will perform sacrifices and other such meritorious acts with the help of money acquired fairly by himself. If the lord of the 10th bhava be associated with Saturn, the meritorious acts will go on with the help of money contributed by Sudras. If the same planet be associated with Rahu or Ketu, the sacrificial acts of the person concerned will take place by means of money contributed by despicable people; if with Jupiter, the sacrifices, etc., of the person born will be set on foot by contributions from kings; if with the Sun or any other of the remaining planets, the rites will take place with the help of the money supplied by those relations whose karaka the planet in conjunction with the lord of the 10th bhava may happen to be.

Sloka 6 When the 10th bhava is occupied by many benefic planets, the person concerned will attain the merit of performing a Vajapeya sacrifice. But if the lords of the signs occupied by Venus and Mercury be void of strength, his sacrificial works even when advanced a great way will suffer interruption and will be lost. Sloka 7. When a strong benefic planet occupies the 10th place from the Moon, and being in exaltation or other benefic Varga is associated with or aspected by Jupiter, the person born will be a person of importance performing sacrifices and of wide celebrity. The planets above-mentioned secure in addition the merit accruing from the repair of old works, erection of towers, digging of reservoirs and laying out of parks. When the lord of the 10th bhava is benefic and in conjunction with the Moon, but free from the presence of Rahu or Ketu, the person born will perform sacrifices.

Sloka 9. When Mercury unassociated with Rahu or Ketu is in exaltation or in the 9th bhava, and when the lord of the 10th bhava occupies the 9th, the person born will be engaged in the performance of sacrifices and other meritorious works. When the lord of the 10th bhava occupies its exaltation and is associated with Mercury, or when the latter planet occupying the 7th bhava is in its exaltation at the same time, the person born gets assuredly the benefit of performing sacrificial works.

Sloka 10. If the lord of the 10th bhava be in the 6th, 8th or the 12th, he would impede religious rites. If Rahu occupies the 10th place from Mercury identical with the lord of the 10th bhava, the person born would be a destroyer of sacrifices. The lord of the 10th bhava even in exaltation will lead to the destruction of a religious work undertaken when the exaltation house of the planet happens to be a दुःस्थान (Dustthana).

Sloka 41. When the Moon occupies a Drekkana of Saturn and is aspected by that planet, the yoga leads to the renunciation of the world. The same is the case when the Moon occupying an amsa of Saturn or Mars is aspected by Saturn. If the planet leading to the assumption of asceticism be associated with Rahu, Ketu or Gulika and at the same time occupy a malefic amsa, the person will be guilty of apostasy from the holy order.

Sloka 42. If strong planets capable of leading to asceticism (vide Sl. 15 supra) be obscured by the Sun's rays, the persons born will have great reverence for ascetics, though they may not become initiated into the holy order. If the planets referred to above be overcome in planetary war and aspected by other planets, the person concerned will seek admission into the holy order without success.

NOTES.

This sloka is from Brihat Jataka.

If the Sun forms a conjunction with other planets as in sloka 15, supra then the man does not become a Sanyasin at all. What the Sun actually does is, he improves the devotional side in the school of philosophy denoted by the strong planet but does not make him a Sanyasin of that school of thought. If the planet that is defeated (by conjunction as above) be aspected by any planet, then the man makes persistent efforts for attaining the end in view.

जीवनम्

PROFESSION, LIVELIHOOD.

अर्थाप्तिः पितृजननीसपत्नमित्रभ्रातृस्त्रीभृतकजनाद्दिवाकराद्यैः ।

Sloka 43. There is acquisition of wealth, firstly, from the father, mother, a foe, a friend, a brother, a wife or an inferior, according as the Sun or any of the other planets taken in order occupies the 10th place reckoned from the Lagna or the Moon; secondly, by means of the profession prescribed for the ruler of the 10th house or for the ruler of the Navamsa occupied by the planet owning the 10th place from the Lagna, from the Moon or from the Sun.

NOTES.

Find the planet or planets occupying the 10th place reckoned from the Lagna as well as from the Moon. Ascertain which of them is strongest. If the Sun be such a planet, the native gets parental inheritance (from the father); if it be the Moon, he inherits property from the mother; if Mars, he gets money from enemies; if Mercury, from friends; if Jupiter, from brothers; if Venus, from wife; and if the planet be Saturn, he gets wealth from inferiors, such as servants, etc.

Planets in midheaven or aspiring to Midheaven (दशमाभिलाषिणः -Dasamabhilashinaha) are to be treated accordingly.

Secondly, find out the rulers of the 10th house counted from the Lagna, the Sun and the Moon. Take the strongest of them. Find out in what Navamsa he is. The ruler of that Navamsa will influence the profession.

Let us take the example given in the notes to Adh. V, Sl. 7. There is the Moon posited in the 10th place reckoned from the Lagna as well as from the Sun, and there are no planets in the 10th house from the Moon. The Moon is therefore the only planet that influences his income.

According to the other view, the lords of the 10th places reckoned from the Lagna, the Sun and the Moon are Saturn, Saturn and Venus respectively. Saturn and Venus are in Dhanurnavamsa and Simha Navamsa respectively. The lords of these are Jupiter and the Sun; and the stronger of them is the Sun. The Sun is therefore the planet that influences the profession.

दिवसकराद्यैः खस्थैः शशिहोराभ्यां भवन्त्याढ्याः ।
पितृमातृशत्रुहितजनसहजस्त्रीभृत्यवर्गेभ्यः ॥

According to Bhattotpala, it is not correct to predict the profession by considering the strongest alone of the planets (1) posited in the tenth house reckoned from the Lagna and the Moon, or (2) owning the tenth house counted from the Lagna, the Sun and the Moon. Every one of these should be considered for determining the source of income of the native. He quotes in support of his view the following slokas of गार्गि (Gargi).

उदयाच्छशिनो वाऽपि ये ग्रहा दशमस्थिताः ।
ते सर्वेऽर्थप्रदा ज्ञेयाः स्वदशासु यथोदिताः ॥
लग्नार्करात्रिनाथेभ्यो दशमाधिपतिर्ग्रहः ।

तद्वृत्त्या प्रवदेद्वित्तं जातस्य बहवो यदा ।
भवन्ति वित्तदास्तेऽपि स्वदशासु विनिश्चितम् ॥

If this view be accepted, the income for the native in question will have to be determined with reference to the planets Jupiter (the lord of the Navamsa Rasi occupied by Saturn) and the Sun (the lord of the Navamsa occupied by Venus), i.e., from the sources mentioned in slokas 44 and 49 infra.

To determine the ways by which a person will earn money, the planets which are in the 1st, 2nd and the 5th (opposite to the 11th) houses, in a friend's house, in an enemy's house or in his own house, indicate the source. If the planets be bad, there will be maximum labor and minimum income; if they be good, there will be minimum labor and maximum income. If the Sun is exalted in the above position and at the same time strong (in good houses, etc.,) then the person concerned will earn money by his own exertion. [Note that the Sun in exaltation causes maximum labor and maximum income; the same when the other malefics are posited in the tenth house] If more than one planet be strong, then the native will have more than one source of income.

The profession or occupation of a native is generally judged from the planet or planets occupying the tenth house and, if there should be none there, from those in the 1st and also from those aspecting the Sun and the Moon. Further, the planet which is posited very near the Sun or the 10th bhava whether before or after in the radix of a native and its condition—whether strong or weak—due to its position and aspect exert much influence in this respect.

Sloka 44. An astrologer is to declare the acquisi- of wealth by any person with reference to the predominance of the Lagna or the Moon as the case may be in his horoscope. As to the profession that he is likely to follow, those that are proficient in the subject say, it is to be determined through the lord of the sign owning the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the 10th bhava. If the Navamsa referred to in the above belong to the Sun, the person concerned will earn a living by dealing in medicine, wool, grass, water, grain, work in gold, pearls and the like, as also by playing the part of an emissary between people wishing to approach each other.

NOTES.

The occupations coming under the Sun are: some honorable employment either under the State or under some public body of men, kings, princes, emperors, dukes, earls, barons, etc., all titled appointments under the crown, jewellers, goldsmiths, gilders, owners of woollen mills or workers there, minters or men employed in mints, and the like.

Sloka 45. If the Navamsa under reference be that of the Moon, the person concerned gains a living by dealing in things derived from water such as conchs, pearls, etc., by agriculture, earths of various kind, by indulging in interesting controversies, by purchase of articles of apparel in which the wealth of lordly women is wont to be laid out.

NOTES.

The employments signified by the Moon generally include sailors, mariners, navigators, fishermen, watermen, boatmen, dealers in pearls, those working in pearl fisheries, midwives, nurses, etc.

Sloka 46. If the Navamsa in question belong to Mars, the person gains a livelihood by metallurgy, by war, by exhibiting tricks in which the operation of fire is apparently arrested (अग्निस्तम्भ - Agnisthambha) and by engaging in other people's quarrels, in any act of daring, and lastly by resorting to the profession of a robber.

NOTES.

The professions indicated by Mars are all kinds of military men, such as soldiers, generals, colonels, captains, doctors, physicians, apothecaries, chemists, butchers, executioners, engine drivers and the like—generally all workers in iron, steel or fire.

Sloka 47. If the Navamsa belong to Mercury, the person concerned will try to earn his livelihood by pursuing the arts, by poetry, by the profession of traditional doctrines, by a knowledge of the stars, by the recitation of the Vedas or muttering of prayers on behalf of others at the instance of the priest that has to direct their religious ceremonies.

NOTES.

Mercury's employments denote literary authors, translators, writers, accountants, astrologers, school masters, mathematicians, poets, lawyers, book-sellers, printers, postmen, etc.

usury as a source of living, but will support himself with what he can earn by playing the role of an instructor in the service of Brahmins and deities, and by teaching duties in the domain of morals and traditional observances based on scriptures and other old authoritative works.

NOTES.

The occupations denoted by Jupiter include judges, priests, learned men, senators, preachers, clergymen, bishops, ministers and bankers.

Sloka 49. If the owner of the Navamsa in question be Venus, the living will be derived from a place where gold, ruby, elephants or horses are produced; and by such means as trafficking in cattle, jaggery, cooked rice, salt, curdled milk and by the allurement of a female.

NOTES.

Venus's professions indicate dealers in gold, ruby, elephants' or horses, cows, jaggery; hotel-keepers, confectioners, shepherds, musicians, painters, linen drapers, jewellers, players, embroiderers, lapidaries, scent-dealers, maid-servants, etc.

Sloka 50. If Saturn be the owner of the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the 10th place from the Lagna or the Moon, the person concerned will live by engaging in some vile pursuit, by works of art, etc., executed in wood, by the carrying out of punishments, etc., inflicted on criminals, by the bearing of burdens and by the overreaching of other people due to their being mutually at variance.

NOTES.

Saturn's employments include shoe-makers, scavengers, grave-diggers, undertakers and all persons engaged in similar vile pursuits; they also include gardeners, miners, brick-layers, etc.,

If Mercury be connected with the 10th bhava, the person concerned will always be engaged in mercantile transactions, and according as the planet or planets occupying the 10th bhava are benefic, malefic or both, he will be vigorous, slothful or of a mixed nature.

Sloka 67. It is through the 11th bhava from the Lagna that every accumulation of incoming wealth is expected; the planet in the 11th bhava when possessed of full strength is capable of giving wealth. If the Sun be such a planet, much wealth is derived by the person concerned from paternal kinsfolk; if the Moon, from maternal relations; if Mars, from personal exertion; if Mercury be the planet occupying the 11th bhava in full strength, wealth comes to the person concerned from a dear master, a discerning friend or a maternal uncle.

NOTES

This as well as the next five slokas appear in जातकरत्न.

What can be divined from the 11th bhava is thus stated in the same work:

Sloka 68. Jupiter in the 11th bhava when in full strength gives wealth through the instrumentality of scriptural learning, observance of sacrificial rites and worthy sons. Venus in the same advantageous position, secures accession of riches through females and knowledge of the fine arts such as poetry, dramas and music. Saturn when thus placed gives abundance of wealth and corn produced from agriculture through the exertions of male and female slaves. The caste of the planets aspecting or occupying the bhava in question indicates the class of persons from whom the income of the person concerned is derived.

Sloka 69. If the planet occupying the 11th bhava be benefic, the person born will have wealth acquired by fair means ; the same will be illgotten if the planet in the bhava be malefic ; and mixed if the occupants of the bhava be of a mixed nature. This fact, the astrologer should clearly state as revealed by the horoscope. If the planet in the 11th bhava be strong and preponderatingly friendly, the person born will possess every amiable quality and will be surpassingly blessed with every means of enjoyment such as vehicles, ornaments, articles of apparel, women, luxurious appliances and learning.

NOTES.

The prediction in regard to wealth should be made in accordance with the strength of the planet associated with the bhava or its lord, and it will come from the class of persons whose karaka the associated planet may represent, and during its dasa and apahara and from the quarter belonging thereto.

नानादेशवनाटनो हि शनिना युक्तेऽथवाऽऽलोकिते ७३

Sloka 73. It is through the 12th bhava, its lord and Saturn that an astrologer should divine a person's wandering far, misfortune or evil doom, liberality, the comforts of bed, etc.; dignity and waste of wealth. When the planet in the 12th bhava owns as well as occupies a moveable sign, or is the lord of a Dustthana or is in conjunction with or aspected by Saturn, the person born will indeed have to roam over many lands and forest regions.

NOTES.

This sloka as also slokas 74—79 and 82 & 83 are in जातकरत्न.

What can be ascertained from the 12th bhava is stated in the same work thus :

Sloka 74. When the planet in the 12th bhava is benefic and is associated with as well as aspected by a benefic planet, and when the lord of that bhava is weak and occupies its inimical or depression sign, the person born will not have to spend his wealth. When the planet occupying the 12th bhava is weak, but its lord is in great strength, the person concerned will dissipate his wealth. When planets of a mixed character are associated with the lord of the 12th bhava, the persons concerned will have expense of a mixed nature.

Sloka 75. If the lord of the 12th bhava occupy benefic Vargas, all outlay of money will be on approved legitimate objects. The outlay will be questionable and bad when the lord of the 12th bhava is in conjunction with or aspected by a weak planet. The person concerned is liable to suffer evil from that class of persons, whose karaka the weak planct in question represents, during its dasa and apahara.

Sloka 77. A person will have his wealth consumed by people of the Brahmana and other castes according as the planets in the 12th bhava represent these. If female planets be in that bhava, it is through females that his wealth will go out; if male planets be in the bhava, loss of wealth will be brought about by an enemy. If the bhava in question be owned by a friendly planet, the person concerned will have to lay his money out on account of his friends.

Sloka 78. If the 12th bhava be occupied by a benefic planet, the person born will be liberal, virtuous and engaged in agriculture. If a malefic planet be in that bhava, the person concerned will be captious, suffering fron eye-disease, flatulent, restless and roving. If the planet in the 12th bhava be in exaltation, in its own or in a friendly sign, the person will be beneficent.

Sloka 79. If the Sun or the waning Moon be in the 12th bhava, the wealth of the person born will be liable to be seized and confiscated by the rulers. Mars occupying that bhava in conjunction with or aspected by Mercury destroys the wealth in various ways. Jupiter, the Moon and Venus in the 12th bhava help to conserve wealth. Sloka 82. When Venus, Saturn or the Moon occupies a Trikona position in respect to the 8th bhava and when the house representing the bhava occupied has Ketu in it, the person born will easily become liable to the misfortune called नरपतन (Narapatana, i. e., a sleeping man falling on him which is regarded as a dire portent). If Venus in the position above referred to be associated with a malefic planet, the portent may be the fall of a sleeping woman or a chameleon lizard on the person concerned. If Mars be so associated, the portent may take the form of the presence of a tortoise in the house. If Mercury combine with Mars in the position indicated, the person born may be bit by a dog and suffer from the rabies.

FEMALE HOROSCOPE.

श्रीबलारोग्यसन्तानविद्याकीर्तिविवर्द्धनम् ।
तिथिभग्रहसंयुक्तं जातकं ब्रूमहे वयम् ॥ १ ॥

Sloka 1. We are now going to treat of the female horoscope with its characteristic lunation, Rasis and planets, because it is a means of promoting prosperity, power, health, offspring, knowledge and fame.

अर्थार्जने सहायः पुरुषाणामापदर्णवे पोतः ।
यात्राकाले मन्त्री जातकमपहाय नास्त्यपरः ॥ २ ॥

Sloka 2. There is nothing in the world like a horoscope to help men in the acquisition of wealth, to save them like a boat in a sea of troubles and to serve them as a guide in their journeys.

NOTES.

The object of this sloka in this Adhyaya is only to show that it is the स्त्रिजातक (Sthri Jataka) that (is alluded to by the word जातक in the sloka and which) helps or guides the husband in the sea of troubles.

Sloka 3. The female horoscope is to be written in a fine neat sheet of paper with correct planetary tables serviceable for reference and exhibiting the almanac (of the day of birth in question). It is to show also the Ashtakavargas (Adhyaya 10) of planets, their positional and other six-fold strength (षड्बल-Shadbala), the length of life of the person concerned, the गोचरफल (Gocharaphala) i.e. the effects of the progress of planets in their orbits, the योगफल (Yogaphala, Adhyaya 7) and the भावफल (Bhavaphala, Adhyayas 11-15). The horoscope should give at the same time the Dasa Tables mentioning the number of children destined to live to a great age, the happiness of the husband, the great prosperity and fame which the whole family is to enjoy.

Sloka 4. Whatever effect may accrue from the horoscopes of females that is applicable only to men, should be ascribed to the husband. The good and evil affecting their person should be calculated from the Moon and the Lagna whichever of them is stronger. It is from the 7th place from the Lagna or the Moon that all that is worthy or unworthy in the husbands should be ascertained, and the death of the husbands is foretold through the 8th bhava (from the Lagna or the Moon). All this should be well weighed by the strength or weakness of the planets, benefic and malefic, before an announcement is made.

NOTES.

Whatever effect may accrue from the horoscope of a female that is applicable only to men should be ascribed to the husband. Her prosperity and happiness has to be deduced from the 8th house (from the Lagna or the Moon whichever is strong). Children should be declared through the 9th house and matters relating to her appearance, beauty, etc. should be determined from the Lagna. It is from the 7th place that her welfare and the (nature of the) husband should be ascertained while her association and chastity should be predicted from an examination of the 4th house. Benefics in these houses produce good results, while malefics in the above houses are productive of evil unless they happen to own the houses in which case the effect will be good.

Sloka 5. Of the Lagna and the Moon, find which is the stronger. It is with reference to this that the luck, beauty and strength of women should be announced. Children and wealth in abundance should be declared through the 9th bhava therefrom. Wedded happiness or otherwise should be gathered from the 8th bhava; husband's fortune from the 7th. Some astrologers opine that the well-being or the reverse of the husband can be determined from the 9th bhava.

Sloka 6. Some hold that widowhood is found out through the 8th bhava ; beauty, fame and fortune through the Lagna ; the son through the 5th ; wedded happiness with the husband through the 7th, asceticism as well as the exceeding tranquillity of women through the planets occupying the 9th bhava. All else whether due to the bhavas or yogas are the same in regard to both men and women.

Sloka 7. If the Lagna and the Moon be in an even sign, the female born will have the form and characteristics of the best of her sex. If they be aspected by or associated with a benefic planet, she will possess excellent qualities, of steadfast virtue and prosperous. If the sign occupied by them be an odd one, she would be masculine in form, fickle-minded, masculine in her bearing and sinful ; and if they be aspected by or associated with malefic planets, she will be profligate.

If both the ascendant and the Moon are in even signs and be aspected by benefic planets, the woman born will bear good sons, possess an excellent husband and be well-ornamented. She will be very prosperous and possess excellent qualities. If the Lagna and the Moon are in odd signs and be aspected by or associated with malefic planets, she will be masculine in her bearing, insincere, ungovernable and cruel beyond measure to her husband; and she will be poor.

Sloka 8. If, in an odd sign, both the Lagna and the Moon be associated with or aspected by a benefic planet, the qualities, the aspect, the position, the gait and the intelligence of the female born will be of a mixed kind; but if, in an even sign, both the Lagna and the Moon be associated with or aspected by a malefic planet, the character of the female born, say the wise astrologers, will be shaped wholly by the influence of the planet associated with or aspecting the lord of the even sign under reference.

Sloka 11. When Saturn has but medium strength; when the Moon, Venus and Mercury are weak; and when the remaining planets are possessed of real strength, the female that is born in an odd Lagna will associate with many men. When Jupiter, Mars, Mercury and Venus are strong and when the rising sign is an even one, the woman born will become celebrated for her knowledge of every science developing ultimately into an expounder of the scriptures.

The female owning this nativity becomes immoral along with the mother. If a Navamsa of Mars be setting and be aspected by Saturn, she suffers from diseased organs. If the Descendant be in a शुभग्रहनवांश (Snbhagrahanavamsa) or be occupied by benefics, or the ruler is aspected by benefics or in शुभांश (Subhamsa), she is loved by her husband.

The first पाद (Pada) of the sloka has been interpreted by Bhattotpala thus: "When a sign of Saturn or Mars is the Lagna and the Moon and Venus aspected (both of them) by a malefic planet occupy it." This is not acceptable.

Sloka 22. When a weak malefic planet occupies the 7th and is aspected by a benefic one, the female concerned wil be put away by her husband (Cf. sloka 30 infra), if the malefic planet in the 7th bhava be depressed or in an inimical house, she will be at variance with her husband.

Sloka 23. If the Sun occupying the 7th bhava be aspected by inimical planets, the female born will be cast away; if Mars occupy a similar position, she will become a widow or her husband and herself will become mutually embittered; when good and bad planets occupy the 7th bhava, the female concerned will remarry; when Saturn in the 7th bhava is aspected by an inimical planet, she will attain to a good old age and yet have her husband alive.

Sloka 41. When a malefic planet is in the 7th bhava, the woman concerned will without doubt devote herself to the asceticism answering to the planet in the 9th bhava. The yogas mentioned hitherto become applicable in connection with the time of marriage, the time of selecting a girl, the time of her gift and the time when a query is made regarding her.

NOTES.

This as well as sloka 43 have been taken from Brihat Jataka.

Any planet—whether benefic or malefic—will not bring about widowhood but will make the woman born more devoted to her husband. She will sacrifice herself for him according to the philosophical temperament denoted by the planet in the 9th house as described in Adh: XV. Sl. 15 supra.

An important principle is enunciated here. There must be a planet in the 9th—positive Trikona of the zodiac—to give good results at the time of marriage, betrothal, etc., or at the time of talk regarding marriage.

NOTES.

The period given for each planet in the Naisargikayurdaya (vide V-2 supra) system is the period meant here when widowhood occurs.

If born with any one of the signs Virgo, Taurus, Leo and Scorpio as the Lagna and a malefic planet in the 8th bhava and a benefic planet in the 2nd bhava, she dies without undergoing widowhood and without issue.

शुक्रे कान्तवपुः सुखी च रविजे वृद्धोऽतिमूर्खो भवेत् ४९

Sloka 49. When the Sun occupies its own Navamsa in the 7th bhava, the female born will have a husband gentle and diverting by his excessive playfulness. When the Moon occupies such a position, she will be happy; when Mars is in the same position, the husband will be devoted to his wife though playing the gallant towards other women; if the planet occupying its own Navamsa in the 7th bhava be Mercury, the husband will be learned; if Jupiter be in that bhava, the female concerned will get a spouse who will have all his senses under control; if it be Venus, the husband will be handsome and voluptuous; lastly, if it be Saturn, he will be an old dolt.

Sloka 50. When a female is born in a Navamsa belonging to the Rasi of the 7th bhava, her husband will be softbodied, possessed of excellent qualities, and full of assurance. When Saturn in the 7th bhava occupies his own Amsa or Rasi, the female concerned will be wedded to an old and exceedingly dull husband.

If they be associated with the lord of the 4th bhava or Mercury, the husband will be a person of learning; if they be associated with Mars or Saturn, he will be an agriculturist; if with Rahu or Ketu, a villain; if with the lord of the 6th bhava, he will become a robber-chieftain.

Sloka 54. In this chapter on Female Horoscopy, we have given accurately with reference to husbands the same information which we gave while treating of men's horoscope regarding wives such as the regions from which they may come, their status, the protection of their virtue and the qualities evinced in their acts. The number of children will correspond to the number of Navamsas attained by the powerful among the planets occupying the 7th bhava or its Amsa. The lord of that bhava when occupying a Kendra will produce much jubilation on marriage and other festal occasions.

Adhyaya XVII.

KALACHAKRADASA.

The (कालचक्र) kalachakra-system of ayurdaya referred to already in Adhyaya 5, sloka 33, is based on the Moon's position in a नक्षत्रपाद or quarter of an asterism. For the purposes of this ayurdaya, the 27 stars from Aswini to Revati are classified into nine groups of three each, the five odd groups or triads being styled सव्य (Savya) or दक्षिण (Dakshina) and the four even ones as अपसव्य, (Apasavya) वाम (Vama) or उत्तर (Uttara). The peculiarity of a सव्य (Savya) triad is that its 12 padas (पाद) are assigned to the 12 Rasis from Mesha onwards. In an अपसव्य (Apasavya) triad, the 12 padas belong to the 12 Rasis reckoned in a reverse order from वृश्चिक to धनुस्.

The 12 Nakshatra-padas (नक्षत्रपाद) whether of a सव्य (Savya) or of an अपसव्य (Apasavya) triad can be brought under the four triangular signs according to the Rasis to which they are severally assigned. In accordance with this classification, four kinds of परमायुस् (Paramayus) or maximum life will be shown to result. (Vide sloka 12).

Each कालचक्रनक्षत्रपादायुस् (Kalachakra nakshatrapadayus) in its entire length comprises nine mahadasas (महादशा) presided over by nine Rasis and their lords. The order in which the several Nakshatra padas get each its nine mahadasas is indicated in the mnemonic formulas for the सव्य (Savya) and अपसव्य (Apasavya) chakras respectively. These formulas are expressed by conventional letters कटपयादि (Katapayadi) referred to already in page 696. Two additional letters क्ष and ल used in the formulas denote the numbers 11 and 12 respectively.

The following hints may give a clue to the law governing the assignment of the mahadasas to the several Nakshatra padas.

In a सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra) the mahadasas begin from Mesha onwards to Meena and thence they pass on to Vrischika and go in a reverse order up to Dhanus and thence revert to Mesha and end in Meena.

Thus we have had 3 cycles representing 36 mahadasas for the first four Rasyamsas (राश्यंश) or the first nakshatra of a triad. The 4th cycle begins with Vrischika and passing on in a reverse order ends in Dhanus. The 5th cycle runs from Mesha to Meena; the 6th from Vrischika backward to Dhanus. These three cycles give the kalachakra dasas to the four nakshatra padas comprising the second star of a सव्य (Savya) triad. The 7th, 8th, and 9th cycles are identical with the 1st, 2nd and 3rd cycles respectively Thus it will be seen that the four padas of the 3rd star of a सव्य (Savya) triad have the same mahadasas as those of the first.

There are nine cycles also corresponding to the twelve padas of an अपसव्य (Apasavya) triad, but with this difference. The cycles in this chakra run in an order exactly the opposite of what obtains in the सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra). The first cycle begins with Dhanus and ends with Vrischika. The second runs from Meena to Mesha in the reverse order. The third passes from Dhanus to Vrischika identically with the 1st. These three cycles assign the mahadasa to the first four padas comprising the first nakshatra of an अपसव्य (Apasavya) triad. The 4th and the 6th cycles are identical with the 2nd, i. e., from Meena in a reverse order to Mesha while the 5th is with the 1st or the 3rd, i. e., from Dhanus to Vrischika. These three enable us to find the mahadasas of the middle four padas forming the second star of an अपसव्य (Apasavya) triad.

It is a peculiarity of the अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra) that the last four padas have the same mahadasas as the middle ones; that is the 7th, 8th and 9th cycles correspond to the 4th, 5th and 6th respectively in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra).

For the lengths of the mahadasa periods of the several Rasis and their lords, the reader is referred to sloka 6.

It appears to be an accepted canon in the kalachakra system that the maximum length of the life of any person whether born in the beginning, middle or end of a नक्षत्रपाद (nakshatra pada) should not exceed the length of the nine mahadasas (for that pada) reckoned from that at birth.

For a knowledge of the terms देह (Deha), जीव (Jeeva), मण्डूकगति (Mandukagati), मर्कटगति (Markatagati), सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana), the reader should refer to slokas 89—92. In connection with the terms मण्डूकगति (Manduka gati) and मर्कटगति (Markata gati), it will be interesting to note that in a सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra), the two movements take place from Kanya to Kataka and Simha to Mithuna respectively, while in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra) they are invariably from Kataka to Kanya and Mithuna to Simha and these occur only in the cycles which run from Vrischika to Dhanus and vice versa.

A reason for this will appear when we remember that it is only by such an arrangement the order of planets in both the cycles can be made identical.

Slokas 1-2. Bowing to Siva, the supreme soul, the prime cause of all things, standing in the centre of the planetary systems and comprehending in his omniscience the 64 branches of knowledge, the all-benign goddess Parvati asked that supreme Ruler of all Gods as follows: "Tell me, oh lord, in detail the entire course of the wheel of time कालचक्र (Kalachakra)."

In the four triads commencing with Rohini, Makha, Visakha, and S'ravana, reckon the quarters from Vrischika in the अप्रदक्षिण (Appradakshina) order.

Slokas 9–10. The चक्र (chakra) consisting of a दक्षिण (Dakshina) triad of stars should be cast in the प्रदक्षिण (Pradakshina) order from Mesha to Meena among the 12 Rasis to which the Navamsas composing the triad belong. Again, the 12 quarters of the triad called उत्तर (Uttara) (in contrast with दक्षिण (Dakshina) of the previous sloka) are to be assigned to the 12 Rasis in the अप्रदक्षिण (Appradakshina) order from Vrischika to Dhanus. Thus, दक्षिण (Dakshina) and उत्तर (Uttara) have to be apprehended as distinct each from the other.

देहादि गणयेत्सव्ये वामे जीवादि गण्यते ॥ ११ ॥

Sloka 11. Thus, the triads of stars reckoned from Aswini are to be distinguished as दक्षिण (Dakshina) and उत्तर (Uttara) just as their padas are reckoned in the प्रदक्षिण (Pradakshina) or अप्रदक्षिण (Appradakshina) order of Rasis. In the सव्य (Savya) triad the reckoning begins with देह (Deha). In the अपसव्य (Apasavya) triad it begins with जीव (Jeeva).

Sloka 12. In the अंश (Amsas) i. e. quarters of the nakshatras representing the houses Mesha, Vrishabha, Mithuna and Kataka, the greatest life is declared to result, being measured respectively by the numbers 100, 85, 83 and 86. The same holds good in respect to the Trikona Rasis of the four foregoing.

सव्ये तु प्रथमांशस्तु देह इत्यभिधीयते ॥ १३ ॥

Slokas 13 and 13½. There can thus be a thorough knowledge of the age of a person when what are called देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva) are previously settled. In the सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra) the first division of every Rasi is called देह (Deha) and the last is termed जीव (Jeeva). In the अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra) this is reversed.

देहजीवे यदा राहुः केतुर्भौमो रविः स्थितः ॥ १४ ॥

Slokas 13½–14½. When Rahu, Ketu, Mars, or the Sun happen to be in the conjunction of देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva), there will be death in consequence thereof. If they happen to be in देह (Deha) alone, disease sets in. Cf. पराशर

Slokas 14½–16. When Mercury, Jupiter and Venus go to a house which represents देह (Deha) or जीव (Jeeva), then everything tends to happiness and prosperity and there is an end of sorrow and sickness. When the देह (Deha) or the जीव (Jeeva) house is occupied by a mixture of good and bad planets, the effect would be of a mixed nature.

द्वाभ्यां संयोगमात्रेण हन्यते नात्र संशयः ॥ २९ ॥

Sloka 29. The planet occupying the देह (Deha) produces a dangerous malady while the one occupying the जीव (Jeeva) brings on great risk. If both the देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva) be occupied by the malefic planets named (in the previous sloka), then, undoubtedly, the person concerned becomes a victim.

Slokas 64–65. During the ripening of the चक्रदशा (Chakradasa) of the 7th Rasi may be expected marriage; the joy with a wedded consort; the birth of a son, the pleasures of the table—such as ghee, dhal and sugar; success in agriculture, acquisition of cattle, elephants and ornaments, honor by the sovereign and great renown. When the 7th Rasi is benefic and is occupied by a benefic planet, the good effects spoken of will surely follow.

Slokas 66-67. During the चक्रदशा (Chakradasa) of the 8th Rasi there will be much misery, waste of wealth, loss of place, loss of relations, griping pain in the privities and the stomach, poverty, famine and danger from an enemy. These effects the astrologer may announce when the Rasi is malefic and occupied by a malefic planet.

Slokas 68-69. When the चक्रदशा (Chakradasa) of the 8th Rasi sets in, good will certainly result—viz. children, friends, wives, wealth, agriculture, cattle, houses, ornaments, accomplishment of good works and charity; the securing of adherents among men connected with the great men in power. All this will accrue when the Rasi is propitious. It will be otherwise when the Rasi is malefic.

Slokas 70-71 When the चक्रदशा (Chakradasa) of the Rasi of the 10th bhava is in progress and when that Rasi is propitious, the following good things may be predicted by a competent astrologer– acquisition of a kingdom, honor by a king, good fame, great rejoicing in the society of one's wives, children and relatives, possession of authority, sound health, pleasant recreations in company with good people, the fruit of good works and supremacy.

Slokas 72–73. During the चक्रदशा (Chakradasa) of the Rasi of the 11th bhava, the person concerned will come into possession of money, health, ornaments and have an accession of varied property and household furniture. When good planets appear in the Rasi in question, the astrologers declare there will be, as the result hereof, comfort and happiness secured to the females, the children and the relatives, return from reproductive investments, real prosperity, royal favor and good fellowship.

Slokas 74–75. When the चक्रदशा of the Rasi of the 12th bhava is in progress and when that Rasi happens to be malefc, the following evils may without doubt crop up—bodily suffering, loss of place, encounter with robbers, fire, royal displeasure and the like ; trouble from relatives from women and from the king ; obstruction of activity, lassitude, loss in agriculture, in cattle and in lands ; poverty and want of occupation.

Sloka 76. We have thus stated the effect of the bhavas from the Lagna to the twelfth (both inclusive).

It has got a peculiarity which is now going to be specially pointed out.

तद्राशिपे तु जनने कष्टं राश्युद्भवं फलम् ॥ ७९ ॥

Slokas 77-79. In accordance with the strength of the planet owning a particular Rasi under consideration should the astrologer use suitably the rule enunciated; when the lord of the Rasi in question is possessed of strength occupying a varga belonging to its exaltation house, to a friendly sign or to itself and when the associated planets are friendly and the aspecting ones benefic, the good effects stated already may be announced. But when the lord of the Rasi has no strength being in its depression, in an inimical house or eclipsed by the Sun's rays or when it occupies the 6th, the 8th or the 12th bhava and the aspecting planets are malefic or unfriendly —when such is at birth the state of the planet owning the Rasi under consideration—the effect produced by it will be painful.

यदि चेद्द्विगुणं सौम्यं फलत्येव न संशयः ॥ ८१ ॥

Slokas 80-81. The effect produced by a Rasi is of two sorts : bad as well as good. If the lord of the Rasi be without strength, the person concerned will suffer the evil effects. If the planet owning the Rasi predominate in strength, the effect of the Rasi will be good ; and if the Rasi be capable of producing good as well as evil, while its lord continues predominant, the good will undoubtedly come to pass.

अधिपे चरराशिस्थे चरराश्यंशकेऽपि वा ।

Sloka 82. If the lord of the Rasi referred to in the preceding slokas be in a moveable sign or occupy a Navamsa owned by a moveable sign and if the कालचक्र (Kalachakra) be that produced by a moveable sign, the person concerned will have to go to a foreign country.

यावच्चक्रं तदा ज्ञेयं यद्येकस्मिन् चरे सति ।
विदेशगमनं वाऽपि स्वस्थानाप्तिं विनिर्दिशेत् ॥ ८३ ॥

Sloka 83. In the case adverted to in the preceding sloka, the repairing to a foreign country will continue as long as the चक्र (Chakra) in question lasts. If one, and not both, of the above conditions have the characteristic of movability, the astrologer should decide the question of the person concerned going to a foreign country or being in his native place just as the balance of forces tends to the one or to the other.

Sloka: 84–86. Planetary effects which it is possible to foretell have been described, some of them in the संज्ञाध्याय (Sangnya adhyaya) i.e. in the chapter on Definitions, Adhyayas 1 & 2), some in the chapter on कर्माजीव (Karma Ajeeva-Adhyaya 15), some in that treating of the आश्रय (Asraya) yogas (Adhyaya 7), and some in connection with the particular positions of planets (Adhyaya 8), with the Rajayoga, Chandra yoga, Nabhasa yogas (Adhyaya 7) and the like, and also some as due to good and bad aspects and to the combinations in one and the same bhava of two or more planets. An intelligent astrologer should, by a due exercise of his faculties, consider well these planetary effects as they have been described by ancient sages and utilise them for making his predictions in connection with the कालचक्रदशा (Kalachakradasa).

Slokas 87–88½. Lay out upon the floor a diagram of the दक्षिणचक्र (Dakshina Chakra) which begins with Mesha and ends with Meena. Draw also another diagram on the ground, of the उत्तरचक्र (Uttara Chakra) beginning with Vrischika and ending with Dhanus in the reverse order: Success or failure and whether it be in the East, West, North or South, a wise astrologer can ascertain as pointed out by the Rasis and the planets in a horoscope according to their strength. Every body can have such things foretold in respect to his life in the way that has been pointed out.

मण्डूकगमनं चैव पृष्ठतो गमनं तथा ।
सिंहावलोकनं नाम पुनरागमनं भवेत् ॥ ९० ॥

Slokas 89-90. The progress of कालचक्र (Kalachakra wheel of time) has been ascertained by ancient sages to take place in three ways—(1) मण्डूकगमन (Mandukagamana) a frog's leap; (2) पृष्ठतोगमन (Prishtatogamana) a going backward in view to the same movement; (3) सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana) the glancing of a lion which consists in returning by the way traversed already.

मीनवृश्चिकयोश्चापमेषयोः केसरी गतिः ॥ ९१ ॥
कन्याकर्कटयोः सिंहयुग्मयोर्मण्डुका गतिः ।

Slokas 91-91½. The second of the three movements mentioned in the previous sloka occurs in respect to the signs Kataka and Simha. The third, i.e., सिंहावलोकन is a direct passage between Meena and Vrischika, as also between Dhanus and Mesha either way. The frog's leap is the direct passage between Kanya and Kataka, as well as Simha and Mithuna (avoiding in each case the intermediate sign).

वाहनात्पतनं वाऽपि दशाछिद्रान्विते सति ।

Slokas 92-93½. At the time of a सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana), astrologers say, there will be suffering caused by fever, loss of place, of a loving relation or other such person, distress to persons having the same status as the owner of the horoscope in the family, accident in water such as falling in a well, danger from poison, fire of some deadly weapon, and being thrown from a vehicle. All this is likely to happen when the सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana) is synchronous with the दशाछिद्र (Dasachidra), i. e. the dasa period, bhukti, apahara, etc. of an illplaced malefic planet (vide next sloka).

क्रूरास्तनीचापचयखेचरस्य दशा यदि ॥ ९४ ॥
दशाछिद्रमिति ज्ञेयं प्रवदन्ति विपश्चितः ।

Sloka 94½. The term दशाछिद्र (Dasachidra), astrologers say, is applied to a period when the dasa of a malefic, eclipsed, depressed or ill-placed planet is in progress.

मण्डूकगतिसंभूतसमये मरणं गुरोः ॥ ९५ ॥
पित्रोर्वा विषशस्त्राग्निज्वरचोराग्निभिर्भयम् ।

Sloka 95½. At the time a मण्डूकगमन (Mandukagamana) occurs, the death of a revered person or of one's parents may happen; or there may be danger from poison, deadly weapons, fire, fever or incendiary brigands.

मण्डूकसमये सव्ये समानजनपीडनम् ॥ ९६ ॥

Sloka 96. If the मण्डूकगमन (Mandukagamana) refers to a सव्यचक्र (Savyachakra), there will be distress to persons in the family holding equal status with the owner of the horoscope.

केसरीयुग्ममण्डूके मातुर्मरणमादिशेत् ।
मरणं राजभीतिं च सन्निपातमरेर्भयम् ॥ ९७ ॥

Sloka 97. When the मण्डूकगति (Mandukagati) is between Simha and Mithuna the astrologer may predict the death of the mother or of the person concerned, a complicated fever or danger from a king or foemen.

सव्ये सिंहावलोके तु चतुष्पाद्भयमग्निजम् ।
पृष्ठतो गमनं सव्ये धनधान्यपशुक्षयः ॥ ९८ ॥
पितुर्मरणमालस्यं तत्समानेषु वा मृतिः ।

Sloka 98–98½. In a सिंहावलोक (Simhavaloka) having reference to a सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra), the evil cropping up will be danger from a quadruped or fire. When there is a पृष्ठतोगमन (Prishtatogamana) in a सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra), there will be loss of wealth, grain and cattle, disease or death of a father, or the demise of persons of equal standing.

तापज्वरं मृगाद्भीतिं पदच्युतिमरेर्भयम् ।
सिंहावलोकने वामे स्थानभ्रष्टं पितुर्मृतिः ॥ १०० ॥

Slokas 99–100. On the other hand, when the चक्र (Chakra) is अपसव्य (Apasavya) and there is a मण्डूकप्लुति (Mandukapluthi), it may occasion illness and trouble to the wife or children of the person concerned or a severe fever to himself, or danger from a beast or an enemy, or loss of place. If there be a सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana) in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra), the evil to be dreaded may be loss of place or the death of the person's father.

पृष्ठतो गमनं वाऽपि जलभीतिं पदच्युतिम् ।
पितुर्नाशं नृपक्रोधं दुर्गारण्याटनं वदेत् ॥ १०१ ॥

Sloka 101. If there be a पृष्ठतोगमन (Prishtathogamana) in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra), the astrologer may predict an accident in water, loss of place, loss of father. the incurring the displeasure of a sovereign and the person's having to betake in consequence to an inaccessible jungle.

NOTES.

Astrologers are divided into two schools according to their manner of applying these formulas. One class explain that each formula applies to a nakshatra-pada of a particular type and gives the order of the Rasi-mahadasas composing the entire life represented by the nakshatra-pada and that the subsidiary portions of each Rasi-mahadasa belong to the Rasis mentioned in the formula.

The astrologers of the other class say that each formula is concerned only with the mahadasa of the Rasi owning the corresponding nakshatra-pada (i. e.—to which the formula has reference) and the letters in the mnemonic rule indicate the order and the proportionate lengths of the subsidiary periods of the mahadasa in question; and that a life consists of several such Rasi-mahadasas following one another in the natural order of the nakshatra-padas, the initial mahadasa being that of the quarter asterism occupied by the Moon in the horoscope under examination.

An illustration will make the whole thing clear. Take for instance the case of the horoscope given in page 237 supra.

The Moon's position is 9 signs, 14 degrees, 29 minutes, 39 seconds. These when reduced to minutes give 17,069·65. Dividing this by 800 (the number of minutes of a star), we get 21 stars and 269·65 minutes. The person was born after 269·65 minutes had passed in the 22nd star viz. श्रवण (Sravana) i. e. after 69·65 minutes had passed in the 2nd quarter of the star, and the Rasi owning this nakshatra-pada is Tula in the Apasavya chakra. The mnemonic formula corresponding to this pada is तासाद्रन्नक्षुर्निधिदांसा which when translated into figures will become 6-7-8-12-11 10-9-8-7. According to the first school $\frac{69·65}{200} \times 83$ years or 28·90475 years having expired before birth, about 3 years of Vrischika Kuja dasa (वृश्चिककुजदशा) still remain to be passed at the time of birth of the person concerned. The mahadasa that follows next will be that of मीनगुरु, then कुंभशनिदशा, मकरशनिदशा, धनुर्गुरुदशा; वृश्चिककुजदशा and तुलाशुक्रदशा follow in their order. The subsidiary portions of each of these mahadasas belong to these 9 Rasis. e. g., the bhuktis of the 10 years of मीनगुरुदशा will be (1) मीनगुरु $\frac{10 \times 10}{83}$ years; (2) कुंभशनि $\frac{4 \times 10}{83}$ years; (3) मकरशनि $\frac{4 \times 10}{83}$ years; (4) धनुर्गुरु $\frac{10 \times 10}{83}$ years; (5) वृश्चिककुज $\frac{7 \times 10}{83}$ years; (6) तुलाशुक्र $\frac{16 \times 10}{83}$ years; (7) कन्याबुध $\frac{9 \times 10}{83}$ years; (8) तुलाशुक्र $\frac{16 \times 10}{83}$ years; and (9) वृश्चिककुज $\frac{7 \times 10}{83}$ years. Similarly for the other dasas.

The second school will maintain that the initial mahadasa of the horoscope under reference is that of तुलाशुक्र out of which $\frac{69·65}{200} \times 16$ or 5·57 years having elapsed already, there is still 10·43 years to be passed and the mahadasas to follow are those of कन्याबुध, सिंहरवि, कटकचन्द्र, मिथुनबुध, वृषभशुक्र and so on. The order of the subsidiary periods in each mahadasa is that of the Rasis of the letters in the corresponding formula; e. g. the bhuktis of the 5 years of सिंहरविदशा of the horoscope under reference will be (1) मीनगुरु $\frac{10 \times 5}{100}$ years; (2) मेषकुज $\frac{7 \times 5}{100}$ years; (3) वृषभशुक्र $\frac{16 \times 5}{100}$ years; (4) मिथुनबुध $\frac{9 \times 5}{100}$ years; (5) सिंहरवि $\frac{5 \times 5}{100}$ years; (6) कटकचन्द्र $\frac{21 \times 5}{100}$ years; (7) कन्याबुध $\frac{9 \times 5}{100}$ years; (8) तुलाशुक्र $\frac{16 \times 5}{100}$ years and (9) वृश्चिककुज $\frac{7 \times 5}{100}$ years. The astrologers of Southern India belong to this latter class.

दस्रादिपादप्रभृतीनि भानां वाक्यानि यान्यक्षरपङ्क्तिजानि ।
तेषां क्रमेणैव दशा प्रकल्प्या वाक्यक्रमं साध्विति केचिदाहुः ॥

There are a number of formulas each composed of a number of mnemonic syllables referring to the several nakshatra-padas beginning with the 1st pada of Aswini and giving Rasis in a certain order. It is with reference to the order of Rasis in these formulas that the Rasi-mahadasas of which a life is to consist should be determined. The वाक्यक्रम (Vakya Krama), men of one school say, should be adhered to.

नक्षत्रपादैष्यघटीसमुत्था पूर्वा दशा तत्पतिवर्षजाता ।
पूर्वोक्तपादक्रमशोऽत्र विद्यात् केषांचिदेवं मतमाहुरार्याः ॥

The initial mahadasa of a life belongs to the lord of the Rasi owning the nakshatra-pada occupied by the Moon at the time of birth, being so much of the Rasi-mahadasa as corresponds to the ghatikas that yet remain of the nakshatra-pada and the order of the mahadasas follows the natural order of the nakshatra-padas reckoned from the aforesaid one. This is the opinion, say the sages, held by the other school.

भूतैकविंशद्गिरयो नवदिक्षोडशाब्धयः ।
सूर्यादीनां क्रमादब्दा राशीनां स्वामिनो वशात् ॥ १०६ ॥

Sloka 106. 5, 21, 7, 9, 10, 16 and 4 are the years respectively of the 7 planets reckoned from the Sun. The years of the signs correspond to the years of their lords.

॥ अन्तश्चक्रम् ॥

दशां दशाब्दसंगुण्यां सर्वायुःसंख्यया हरेत् ।
लब्धमन्तर्दशा ज्ञेया वर्षमासदिनादिकाः १०७ ॥

Sloka 107. The period of antardasa of a planet in a महादशा (Mahadasa) is found out by multiplying the latter by the number of years assigned to the planet and dividing the product by the number of years constituting the entire Ayus of the Chakra. The result will consist of years, months, days &c.

अब्दा मासा वासरा नाडिकाद्या दुःस्थानेशा दुःखरोगाकराः स्युः ॥

Sloka 108. The years assigned to the lord of the main Chakra dasa should be multiplied into the years for the lord of the Rasi whereof the bhukti in the main dasa is required. The product is to be divided by the maximum life-period for the particular Navamsa to which the कालचक्र (Kalachakra) belongs. The result in the form of years, months, days and ghatikas represents the bhukti required. It is said in this connection that the lords of दुःस्थान (Dustthana) produce abundance of misery and illness.

इत्थं महादायदिनं महाब्दैः संगुण्य तत्रान्तरदास्तु दाये ।
पुनश्च तैस्तैः परमायुरब्दैर्हृतं दशान्तर्दशिता दशाख्याः ॥ १०९ ॥

Sloka 109. The subdivisions (अन्तरदाः-antaradaha) of a subperiod (bhukti or antardasa treated in its turn as a whole) are to be obtained by multiplying the number of days composing the particular bhukti chosen by the number of years of the mahadasa of the planet whose antara is required, and dividing the product by th-figure representing the maximum Ayus in years for the quarter asterism concerned. The quotient will be in days etc. In this way, the big, small and smaller divisions of a planetary period styled Dasa, Antardasa, Antara and Vidasa may be obtained.

विनाडीकृत्य नाक्षत्रं स्वैः स्वैः संवत्सरैः पृथक् ।

Sloka 110 What is called सूक्ष्मदशा (Sukshmadasa), i. e. the subdivisions of a नाक्षत्र (Nakshatra) or Kala-chakra antara can be obtained by multiplying the figures in Vighatikas of the antara in question into the number of years of the mahadasa of the planets severally and dividing the product by the number of years of the maximum Ayus appropriate to the particular Kalachakra or nakshatra-pada under consideration.

Sloka 111. When the paka of a planet in the dasa, antardasa, etc. of another planet is required, multiply the number representing the years of the mahadasa of the former into the figure denoting the years, months, days etc. of the latter and divide the product by the fixed number of years for the maximum Ayus. The quotient will be the paka required. This rule is to be applied in the case of every paka that has to be found out.

Thus ends &c.

Sloka 1. Sages say that good and evil come to a person born in this world in accordance with the good and bad dasa he has to pass through. I quote faithfully the essence of what the sages have said, and treat of the distinction between good and evil in a dasa as diffusely as I can.

Sloka 2. A person attains to a yoga good or bad exactly in accordance with the strength of planetary positions; and the character of the dasa that he will have is dependent on the character of the yoga; and all that men experience in the world is comprehended in the good and evil cropping up in the dasas; and the distribution of this good and evil should be declared suitably to the conditions of the four castes.

Sloka 3. Count the stars from Krittika in groups of nine. The planets presiding over the dasas belonging to the nine stars composing each group are respectively the Sun, the Moon, Mars, Rahu, Jupiter, Saturn, Mercury, Ketu and Venus respectively and their years are 6, 10, 7, 18, 16, 19, 17, 7 and 20.

Sloka 4. Planets prove propitious when they have predominant strength, in their progress towards exaltation, when they have more than the average number of benefic dots correspondingly with the bhavas they dominate, when they occupy the 10th, the 11th and the first bhavas; when they have attained to exaltation and other benefic vargas and lastly when they possess six-fold strength.

Sloka 5. But planets produce evil when (1) they own the Rasi occupied by Mandi; (2) they occupy the bhavas containing Mandi; (3) they are associated with fewer than the average number of benefic dots; (4) they are in inimical, depressed or eclipsed signs; (5) they are in a भावसन्धि (bhava sandhi) or associated with malefic planets; and lastly when they occupy portions of Rasi-Sandhi (which have been termed inauspicious).

NOTES.

For the term भावसन्धि (bhava-Sandhi), see Sripatipaddhati, Adhyaya I, Sloka 8.

Sloka 6. Ascertain the Lagna or the rising sign at the time of commencement of a dasa. If the lord thereof be in this Lagna or in the 3rd, the 6th, the 10th or the 11th house from it, or if the Lagna be included in the सप्तवर्ग (Saptavarga) of the lord of the dasa, i. e. if the rising sign, hora, drekkana, saptamsa, navamsa, dwadasamsa or trimsamsa be owned by the lord of the dasa or if a friendly planet or a benefic one be in the Lagna, the dasa will prove auspicious.

NOTES.

This and the next five slokas have been taken from Sripatipaddhati.

Sloka 7. The Moon produces beneficial effects when in the house of a friend of the lord of the dasa; or in the exaltation house of the latter or in the 7th house, a Trikona house or in any one of the उपचय (Upachaya) houses with reference to the दशानाथ (Dasanathha).

Sloka 8. In the favorable positions mentioned in the previous sloka, the Rasi occupied by the Moon should represent some one of the 12 bhavas, Lagna, Wealth, etc., at the time of birth. The Moon in one of these favorable positions promotes prosperity in respect to the bhava represented by the Rasi occupied. In the unfavourable positions, the bhava represented by the Rasi (occupied by the Moon) suffers damage.

Sloka 9. What has been described by the ancients such as वराहमिहिर (Varahamihira) as the effect of the Moon being in his own house or that of other planets should be mentioned in this connection. For it is the Moon that produces good and evil to be experienced in the form of mental states (pleasure and pain).

उत्पादितं हि द्युचरस्य पूर्वं शुभाधिकं कष्टफलं हि यत्तत् ।
तेनानुसारेण दशासु कल्प्यं शरीरभाजामशुभं शुभं च ॥ १० ॥

Sloka 10. The good and evil to be experienced by men in the dasas or planetary periods should be determined in accordance with the इष्ट (Ishta) and कष्ट (Kashta) of the planet who is the lord of the dasa as worked out previously (vide श्रीपतिपद्धति (Sripatipaddhati) Adhyaya 4, sloka 4).

इष्टोत्कटत्वे हि शुभानि पुंसां फलान्यनिष्टान्यशुभोत्कटत्वे ।
साम्ये तु मिश्राणि फलानि नूनं सर्वत्र चैवं परिकल्पनीयम् ॥

Sloka 11. Men experience good when the इष्ट (Ishta) portion of a planet's influence is greatly in excess of the कष्ट (Kashta) portion. But when the latter is predominant, evil has to be mostly suffered. But when the इष्ट (Ishta) and कष्ट (Kashta) are even, the effects are of a mixed kind. In all cases the planetary influence should thus be interpreted.

भावस्थानालोकयोगोद्भवं च तत्तत्सर्वं तस्य योज्यं दशायाम् ॥१२॥

Sloka 12. Whatever substance is mentioned as belonging to a planet in the (chapter on Definitions) संज्ञाध्याय (Sangnadhyaya-vide बृहज्जातक-Brihatjataka Adh. II, sloka 12 also जा. पा. Adhyaya II sloka 20), and whatever calling is declared appropriate to a planet in the chapter on Profession (vide बृ. जा. Brihatjataka Adh. X. sloka 1 etc. also जा. पा. Adhyaya XV, slokas 43-50), whatever has been spoken of as the effect of the presence of planets in bhavas (vide बृ. जा. XX-1, etc. XVIII-1 etc. also जा.पा. VIII-slokas 39-117) and of their being associated with or aspected by other planets, and of their combinations of yogas (except Nabhasa yogas), all this must be duly assigned to the planets concerned in their several dasas.

This as well as the next two slokas are from Brihat Jataka.

In predicting the several effects of the dasa of any planet, Varahamihira says that it will not do to mention only what has been described to happen in the dasa of that particular planet (vide बृ. जा. Ch. VIII, slokas 12-18.) These will have to be generally supplemented by the effects due to other considerations as well, of the planet, viz., its influence due to its functioning as दशानाथ (Dasanatha) or अन्तर्दशानाथ (Antardasanatha), to its position in the rasi occupied, to its association with other planets, to the benefic dots obtained in its Ashtakavarga, to its occupation of any particular decanate, Navamsa and other Vargas, etc. All these effects will also have to be suitably added on. The particular constituent of the Kalapurusha represented by the planet, the political grade typified by it, the particular colour ascribed to it, the substance typified, vegetable, mineral and animal kingdom represented by it, the precious stone typified by it, the article of apparel, the constituent element of the body represented by it, the particular flavor ascribed to it, the effects due to all these have to be fittingly brought in during the dasa of the planet under consideration. For instance, in the Sun's dasa, should the Sun be auspicious in the nativity, royal favour, self satisfaction, acquisition of red substances, of copper and the like, company of people of the Kshatriya caste, the quality of goodness, possession of good vital energy, etc , all these will have to be predicted . If the Sun be bad, the loss of these has to be thought of; similarly in the case of the Moon and other planets. For further information the reader is referred to the दशाध्यायी (Dasadhyayee) commentary on this sloka.

Sloka 13. During the auspicious dasa period of a planet, men's inner soul assumes a benefic character and leads them to attain much happiness and wealth. By means of the effects described above for the several dasa periods, one can easily conjecture the tide of events a man may have at any particular period as a result of the effects of the dasa ruling at the time. Where planets are void of strength, the effects though attenuated make themselves felt at least in dreamy reveries.

NOTES.

Should the dasa period of any planet be bad, the inner soul assumes a malefic character for the time and misery and loss of wealth will be the result.

Sloka 14. When the lord of a dasa, or a planet friendly to the same is in the Lagna[1] initiating the dasa; when a varga of this Lagna is owned by the lord of the dasa[2]; when a benefic planet occupies the Lagna aforesaid: or when the lord of a dasa is in an उपचय (Upachaya) position, viz., (3rd, 10th, 6th, 11th) with respect to the Lagna; the dasa in question will prove prosperous. When the Rasi occupied by the Moon happens to be the exaltation sign of the lord of the dasa, or a friendly house, an Upachaya, a Trikona, or the 7th house with respect to the lord of the dasa, the effects will be happy. If the Moon's place be different, the effects will be far from happy.

सुहृदि वा वर्गेऽस्य सौम्येऽपि वा — may also be interpreted thus: "Or if a friendly planet or a benefic one be in the Varga of the lord of the dasa," or "if the lord of the dasa be in the Varga of a friendly or benefic planet."

Sloka 15. When the lord of a dasa ripe for fruition happens to be in a swakshetra or in its exaltation or in a friendly house or in an उपचय (Upachaya) place from the Lagna or has the aspect on it of a benefic or a friendly planet, its dasa and bhukti will be favourable. When a Kendra or a Kona is occupied by an exceedingly benefic planet and the 3rd, the 6th and the 11th bhavas by malefic ones, there will be prosperity during the dasa of those among them that are strong and occupy their exaltation or other such उपचय (Upachaya) places.

Sloka 16. If two planets be mutually friendly and have six-fold strength, there will be prosperity during their dasa and bhukti. But if the two planets be inimical and weak, their पाक (Paka) and अपहार (Apahara) may entail evil.

Sloka 17. A planet produces its effect upon the bhava it occupies during its dasa, this effect being good or bad according to the nature of the planet. If the planet be a benefic one, good is to be expected, say the astrologers, during its dasa, to the bhava concerned; if the planet be malefic, the bhava will suffer evil.

Sloka 18. The dasa of a planet will be very auspicious when it is in conjunction with a benefic planet. If it be in conjunction with a malefic one, its dasa when ripening will be barren of effect. If the planet concerned be associated with one of mixed nature and be neither weak nor strong, its dasa and apahara will be characterized by effects of mixed nature.

Sloka 19. Whatever be the metal assigned to a planet, the acquisition of property in that metal takes place during the dasa and apahara of that planet. If the planet concerned exert a malefic influence the property in the metal will diminish during its dasa; but if the influence be benefic. the property will receive accession.

यत्कार्यकारिद्युचरस्य दाये तत्कार्यसिद्धिं प्रवदेन्नराणाम् ।
शुभग्रहोऽसौ यदि कार्यसिद्धिं पापस्तु तत्कार्यविनाशमेव ॥२१॥

Sloka 21. If men's success in a business or concern be the subject of inquiry, the astrologer should predict the success of the concern during the dasa of the planet that is the promoter of the concern in question. If the influence of the planet be for good, the prosperity of the concern may be predicted; if for evil, the concern will be a failure.

Sloka 22. Royal favor is usually secured during the dasa period of the planet that is the karaka of royalty (viz. Jupiter) or owns the bhava representing it (5th bhava). The worship of the deity represented by a planet comes on apr pos during the period of the ripening of its dasa. Perfection in the practice of religious austerities, good works. etc., may be predicted to come on during the advent of the dasa of the lord of the 9th bhava. The palmy time for sacrifices and other meritorious rites will be during the dasa and apahara of the lord of the 10th bhava.

Sloka 23. During the Paka and bhukti of a planet, the predominant quality characterising it whether सत्त्व (Satva) रजस (Rajas) and तमस (Tamas) (vide Adhyaya 2, sloka 26) generally manifests itself. This manifestation foreruns or inaugurates the dasa of the planet in case it should occupy one of the 9 asterisms from the जन्मर्क्ष (Janmarksha). But if the planet's position be in one of the 9 asterisms from the कर्मर्क्ष (Karmarksha), the manifestation adverted to will take place some time after the dasa has set in. When the place of the planet is among the nine stars from the आधान (Adhana), the manifestation in question will not take place, or if it takes place at all, it will be only so long as the dasa lasts.

NOTES.

For जन्मर्क्ष, कर्मर्क्ष and आधान vide supra Adhyaya 9, Sl. 78-80.

Sloka. 24. A planet in a Sirshodaya sign yields fruit at the initial portion of the period of life influenced by him. But the same planet in a Prishtodaya sign does it at the final stage. But if he should be in a sign which has both the characteristics, he becomes fruitful at all times.

Sloka 25. The dasa of the lord of the 6th bhava may lead to wailing and lamentation. During the paka or the apahara of the lord of the 8th bhava, death may set in. When the dasa or apahara of the lord of the 7th bhava is in progress, a near relative may be lost. Without overlooking the above, the astrologer may predict prosperity in general during the apahara or bhukti of planets presiding over the asterisms termed संपत् (Sampat), साधक (Sadhaka), मैत्र (Maitra), परममैत्र (Parama maitra) and क्षेम (Kshema).

NOTES.

The terms जन्म, कर्म and आधान have been explained already in Adhyaya 9, slokas 78-80. The nine stars counted from any one of the above three are termed respectively (1) जन्म (2) संपत् (3) विपत् (4) क्षेम (5) प्रत्युर (6) साधक (7) वध (8) मैत्र and (9) परममैत्र.

When any one of the several bhavas such as the Lagna is the subject of inquiry, and when a planet exceedingly inimical to the lord of the bhava under consideration occupies a house void of benefic dots, the astrologer, relying upon the unanimous declaration of eminent sages, may announce that the bhava in question will suffer annihilation during the ripening of the dasa of the inimical planet referred to.

Sloka 30. The dasa period of a planet owning a बाधास्थान (Badhasthana) as well as of the one associated therewith leads to disease, distress and other such evils. During the dasa and apahara of a planet occupying a Kendra from the बाधास्थान (Badhasthana), sorrow and foreign travel will crop up. If two planets occupy the 6th and the 8th places in respect to each other, the astrologer may predict danger, exile or some untoward event during their paka and apahara; but if the planets in question be benefic and friendly, the effect will be mixed.

NOTES.

बाधास्थान and बाधक are defined thus:—

आरूढराशौ चर आयराशौ स्थिरे तु बाधा नवमे विचिन्त्या ।
तथोभये कामगृहे त्रयाणां केन्द्रेषु चैषामिति केचिदाहुः ॥
चरस्थिरोभये लग्ने लाभधर्मास्तपैः क्रमात् ।

When the Lagna (whether of birth or of query) is a moveable, immoveable or dual sign), the 11th, the 9th and the 7th places therefrom taken in order are termed बाधास्थानाः or troublous positions. The planet owning a बाधास्थान as well as the one occupying it or its Kendra is called बाधक. (Also vide Adhyaya 2, sl. 48).

Sloka 31. If the planet ripening the fortune of a person at any time be the one termed दीप्त (Deeptha) (vide Adh. 2, slokas 16 18), he will become a king with an abundance of wealth, fame, patronage and learning to make him happy; if a स्वस्थ (Swastha), he will have secured to him the benefits of old traditions, religious observances, the hearing of pious homilies, exceeding comfort, health and wealth; if a मुदित (Muditha), its gifts to him will be in the form of royal favour, power and worldly happiness; if a शान्त (Santha), the effect will be exemption from ailments, happiness, prosperity, the good will of the rulers and a spirit of enterprise.

Sloka 32. When the dasa of a planet termed शक्त (Saktha) is in fruition, a person will evince a predilection for learning, education, money, religious austerities, acquisition of supernatural powers and works of charity. During the progress of the dasa of a planet called पीडित (Peedita), a person may have to apprehend danger from robbers, enemies and the rulers of the land, or lose an younger brother. Distress is all the legacy that a दीन (Deena) planet could leave. The dasa of the ill-conditioned planet termed विकल (Vikala) leads to distress and disease; that of a खल (Khala) produces mental anguish; and lastly, the planet in the भीत (Bheetha) state keeps the person under its infuence in dread of adversaries.

Sloka 34. If the Rasi containing the उत्पन्न (Utpanna) nakshatra (vide next sloka) be stronger than any referred to in the preceding sloka, it is quite possible that the person about whom divination is to be made, may get the fruits of all the dasas of his life calculated from the Utpanna nakshatra as the starting point. It is to be understood as a general rule that all planets have a tendency to work evil at the end of their several dasas.

Sloka 35. Ascertain the 5th, the 8th as well as the 4th star from जन्मर्क्ष (Janmarksha), i. e. the star occupied by the Moon at the time of a person's birth. Cycles of dasas are calculated from every one of these as the starting point. The dasa counted from the 5th is called उत्पन्न (Utpanna); that from the 8th, आधान (Adhana); that from the 4th, क्षेम (Kshema). If the dasas in these cycles have their ends tallying with each other or with the end of the dasa taken in the same order from जन्मर्क्ष (Janmarksha), i. e. giving the same number of years, months, etc., it is a sign that the life of the person concerned is to end with the dasa. In the case of people endowed with short, long and medium lives, the demise will happen at the close of the 3rd, the 7th and the 5th dasa respectively.

Sloka 36. If the birth of a person be during day time, his exit from the world is to be thus determined: Add the figures for the Sun and Saturn, and find out the asterism and the portion thereof indicated by this total. In the महादशा (mahadasa) of this asterism, find out which period corresponds to the particular portion of the star already found. The death of the person concerned will occur at this point of time. If the birth be during night, add the figures for the Moon and Rahu; ascertain as before the particular period of the mahadasa corresponding to the portion of the asterism indicated by the total. This will give the time of निर्याण (Niryana).

॥ गुलिकदशा ॥

Sloka 37. Ascertain the asterism occupied by Mandi at the time of a person's birth. The dasa of Gulika is reckoned from this star. The lords of the Rasi and the Navamsa occupied by Gulika as well as the planet in conjunction (literally co-operating) with the Upagraha are death-dealing planets in the horoscope.

॥ शूलदशा ॥

विक्रमाष्टमाधिपवशाज्जातस्यायुः । पितृकारकौ
रविशुक्रौ मातृकारकौ चन्द्रकुजौ

Sloka 38. The lords of the two eighth places आयुः स्थाने (Ayusthaney), the Sun and Venus, as also the Moon and Mars are called Karakas; the first two, of the native's आयुस-Ayus (जातस्यायुः-Jathasyayuhu); the second pair, of the father; the third, of the mother. Find the dasa corresponding to that one among the three शूलराशि (Soola Rasis) of a Karaka, which the conditions of the horoscope under examination may point to and find also when the dasa may be in progress. This dasa, i. e. the dasa of the lord of the शूलराशि (Soola Rasi) pointed to by the horoscope may prove मृत्युदा (Mrityuda) or fatal.

NOTES.

The sloka is very terse. दिन according to the कटपयादिसंख्या (Katapayadi Sankhya) signifies the number 8. Here the dual दिनेशौ points to the two planets that are the lords of the two Ayusthanas (अष्टमं ह्यायुषः स्थानमष्टमादष्टमं च तत्), viz., the 8th and the 3rd places from the lagna. The interpretation given above is further snpported by the following :—

"रविशुक्रयोः प्राणी जनकः । चन्द्रारयोर्जननी" (जैमिनी).

"सूर्यभार्गवयोर्मध्ये यो बली स पितृकारकः स्यात् । चन्द्रभौमयोर्यो बली स मातृकारकः" (नीलकण्ठ).

The अन्वय of the second half is कारकस्य त्रिशूलर्क्षे या दशा चरति सा मृत्युदा-सा दशा यदा चरति तदा मृत्युदा ॥ The word मृत्युदा is brought in from the preceding sloka. शूलर्क्ष (Soolarksha) is the 8th Rasi from the place occupied by the Karaka or its 7th, whichever of them is found to be stronger. त्रिशूलर्क्ष means the शूलर्क्ष and its triangular signs.

Soola dasas are helpful to find the निर्याण (Niryana) of any particular relative signified by the karaka under consideration.

तत्कारकस्थितगृहादिषु सर्वभेषु
चक्रप्रमाणदलवत्सरसंयुतेषु ।
वीर्यान्वितेषु शुभदृष्टियुतेषु सौख्यं
नीचारिपापयुतभेषु वदन्त्यनिष्टम् ॥ ३९ ॥

Sloka 39. Should the signs representing the Rasi and other Vargas (Hora, Drekkana, Saptamsa, etc.,) occupied by the Karaka under consideration happen to be strong either by the association of, or aspect by, benefics, one may predict good results at the year signified by the number of years allotted to the lord of the respective sign representing the Varga (according to the Udu dasa system) increased by 6. But if the sign happens to be either the debilitation or inimical house of the karaka planet, or be also occupied or aspected by a malefic planet, one has to divine only evil during the said years.

NOTES.

The above meaning is only tentative. "चक्रप्रमाणदलवत्सरसंयुतेषु" has been taken to mean as "with 6 years added." As it is not explicit as to to what number this 6 should be added, it is interpreted as the years according to the Udu dasa system allotted to the lords of the several vargas occupied by the karaka in question.

Sloka 40. If at a birth, the planet owning the asterism or the Navamsa occupied by the Moon should aspect the latter or be in conjunction with it, the Kala· chakra dasas of these planets will be fraught with the special effects to be mentioned. Disease crops up when the देह (Deha) of the dasas in question is associated with an evil planet; and dizziness when such a planet occupies the जीव (Jeeva) If both the देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva) be occupied by malefic planets, and the evil influence thus become overpoweringly strong, death will follow as a consequence.

Sloka 57. Mark the planet that is inimical to the lord of a मृत्यु (Mrityu) dasa. During the bhukti, antara and sukshma dasa of this inimical planet, the time of death of the person concerned will indeed come. There need be no doubt of this when the inimical planet happens to be malefic.

Sloka 58. It is at the outset of the dasa of a malefic planet that the effect of its being in its exaltation or other varga will appear. Its influence over the bhava and the like that it presides over will be felt in the middle of the dasa; while the aspect upon it bears fruit towards the conclusion. This holds good, say the astrologers, in the case of all malefic planets.

What is due to the aspect of other planets upon it comes on at the end. All astrologers recognise the distinction thus set forth between the Nakshatra dasas of benefic and malefic planets.
